EXPRESSLY encountered no difficulties establishing control along the chute, carved out the pace with the rider holding something in reserve, throwing down one pedestrian fraction after another, inched its way into being two wide getting cued up spinning into the stretch, kicked well clear of the others during the ensuing furlong, then padded the winning margin, kept to brisk encouragement to the end. B THREE tucked along the inside route, tracked the winner partnered up with QUEENOFTHECHANNEL, cut the corner with a usable passageway along the inside corridor, nevertheless altered course to be outside the top one in the furlong grounds, proved no match, but went on to procure the place, having never been headed by the third place finisher. QUEENOFTHECHANNEL pulling hard and getting taken hold by the pilot at intervals during the initial portion, mustered up an abbreviated run from the three path from the top of the bend to midpoint left the three-eighths pole heavily roused, made it into the stretch and flattened out. PREZIOSA stalked the winner from the two path for almost three-quarters before giving way.

EKHTIBAAR coaxed from the gate, chased four then five wide coming under coaxing at the three-eighths, continued five wide for home trading light bumps and leans latched on D'AMBROSIO to the outside, took over command three-sixteenths out and edged clear under a drive kept to task. D'AMBROSIO coaxed from the start, vied outside a pair down the backstretch from the five path, then tucked four wide into the turn and advanced to take narrow command three furlongs from home placed to coaxing, came under growing threat to the outside and traded light bumps and leans swinging four wide into upper stretch, got headed at the three-sixteenths and was shaken off, then ran on well clear of the rest and second best. UNTRACEABLE stumbled at the start, vied four then three wide loosely between foes down the backstretch and into the turn, got headed under coaxing three wide at the three-eighths, chased through the latter portion of the turn, continued three wide at the quarter pole and tired in the stretch. PAWN IT BACK broke out at the start and was corrected, vied three then two wide inside a pair down the backstretch, came under coaxing tucked inside half a mile from home, faded through the turn, cut the corner into upper stretch and faltered. UNFORESEEABLE bobbled at the start, chased two to three wide under coaxing from the three-eighths, angled five wide into upper stretch and gave way. CATENARIA chased two to three wide under coaxing from the seven-sixteenths, went three wide into upper stretch, trailed throughout.

I'M AN OCALA DUDE brushed at the start, was engaged in a three-way tussle for control during the initial stages, stepped off the backstretch from three path, continuing to vie for the top, but now going at it one on one with TRIANGULATE, protected a slim advantage all throughout the run around the bend, responded when asked in the vicinity of the three-sixteenths pole and kicked clear. ACCUMULATOR pursued the front runners from the three path on the turn, fanned out into path six from upper to midstretch, straightened away and rallied with some willingness to procure the place. THE CHAMO set to brisk encouragement springing from the starting gate, vied as the innermost of a threesome proceeding along the backstretch after failing to claim the lead, was forced to track the other two from the pocket beginning from the top of the bend, stayed within range, had clear sailing along the inside corridor cutting the corner into the lane, was unable to close the gap then lost out on second. TRIANGULATE in the middle of opponents, one of them being its stable mate, disputed the pace during the opening phases, sparred with the eventual winner from the two path on the turn, was asked for more as the half was being completed, gave in after completing the run leading up to and then through the furlong grounds and steadily backed away. SWIPING DAN away from the gate without apparent mishap, was laboriously worked towards the two path travelling on the backstretch, but for naught as it turned out, and instead became heck-bent on getting out slightly, got checked early on the turn then allowed to shift into the three path, finished the journey to the quarter pole without majoe incident thereafter, tipped out into path seven after entering the stretch and went on to mainly improve position. MAIMO three to four wide and roused on the turn, gave way. PHOENIX BOUND mostly in the twp path on turn, was being urged swinging three wide into the stretch, had no offering. BUSS THE BELL made slight contact with I'M AN OCALA DUDE after losing its footing at the start, left the backstretch from the two path, and never reached a contending position.

ADMIRAL BLUE coaxed from the gate, established the front and showed the way until midway on the turn when knocking heads in hand with JET BLACK to his outside, continued to match that rival down the backstretch in hand before vying inside a pair through the far turn coming under coaxing nearing the quarter pole, cut the corner into upper stretch, edged clear under a drive and held well to the finish. STORM PROPHET just off the inside in behind the top pair through the opening bend, raced three wide just off the duel down the backstretch before advancing to vie outside that pair through the far turn coming under coaxing five-sixteenths from home, continued three wide into upper stretch, got shaken off nearing the eighth pole and ran on to secure the place honors clear of the rest. JET BLACK stumbled at the start, recovered to advance through the first turn three then two wide taking over command with seven-eighths to go, tussled down the backstretch in hand with ADMIRAL BLUE to his inside, got joined three wide by the aforementioned foe and vied between rivals through the far turn coming under coaxing at the three-eighths, got shaken off nearing the quarter pole, spun just off the inside for home dropping back to the rear of the compact field, angled out to the five path nearing the eighth pole and improved position by a weakening pair to secure the show honors. KING KOA tracked the pace along the inside coming under coaxing at the three-eighths, cut the corner into upper stretch, offered no response. ASTOUNDING just off the inside just off the pace, came under a ride at the three-eighths, angled four wide at the quarter pole, weakened in the stretch.

GO GET THE MUNNY broke on top but was taken hold by the pilot right afterwards and allowed to drop back, got positioned in the four path heading onto the turn, was hand ridden steadily advancing towards the front runners, was still not asked for her best leading the competition into the stretch by a slim margin, drew off when ridden out from the top of the lane to past the eighth pole, saw the rider put the mount to an abbreviated drive right around the sixteenth pole, before crossing the wire under much milder encouragement again. RACING RAVEN was being solidly urged taking the four path on the turn, shifted one path farther off the rail for the stretch run and went on to secure second. SPLIT VERDICT quickly guided onto the inside route, abandoned it leaving the five-sixteenths marker, eventually made her way into path seven rallying for third. POWER BOSS three wide spinning onto the turn, was put to strong handling after the half had been completed, altered course towards the rail after entering the stretch, settled in and made no headway thereafter. ST. AUGUSTINE chased the pacesetter from the three path and gave way. FREEZE THE ACCOUNT set up in the path two shortly after the start, had no rally. METAPHORICAL contended for lead towards the two path, was overhauled by the winner even when put to a drive approaching the quarter pole, retreated down the lane.

GYPSY JANIE chased inside early on then from the two path through the turn coming under coaxing at the five-sixteenths, angled five wide into upper stretch, went clear under a drive kept to task. DREAMS ARE PAZIBLE established the front and showed the way two then three wide briefly on the turn coming under coaxing at the three-eighths, swung three wide for home, yielded the front straightened away proving no match for the top one and ran on to procure the place honors. RAPID ROUTE chased just off the inside, tucked inside half a mile from home, came under a ride at the five-sixteenths, spun just off the inside into upper stretch and kept on for the show honors. ROCK ON SANDY inside early on, tipped out three wide five furlongs from home, got coaxed along from the nine-sixteenths, tucked back inside through the turn, went five wide for home, weakened while along for the last major share. MOJITO MARGARITA prompted the leader three to four wide under a ride from the five-sixteenths, cornered four wide for home, weakened in the stretch. CITY OF DREAMS coaxed from the gate, chased two to three wide under coaxing from the seven-sixteenths, angled six wide into upper stretch, made no impact.

FULL HOUSE away well, remained forwardly placed, disputed the pace from the two path, responded when let out a notch right after the half had been completed and took over during the run around the bend, turned for home still well held and in sharp contrast to several others by now being feverishly ridden themselves, was deep into the furong grounds when asked for a response, gave it and lengthened away. SPRING FOR MORE proceeded along in a sluggish manner on the chute, got placed along the inside route coming up to the conclusion of the backstretch, came to life as three-quarters was in the process of being reached, fanned out five to six wide, the widest of all, into the stretch, straightened away and rallied for the place. UNTAKEN tracked the front runners, spaced at a slight distance from off the rail, came four to five wide, directly alongside SPRING FOR MORE, into the stretch, rallied in tandem with the aforementioned rival for most of the trip down the lane, missed out on second. COLORFUL CHARADES off the inside throughout, took up the chase from the three path by the time the field reached the top of the turn, was the same as a few rivals, that is under strong handling prior to the third fraction having been finalized, started to inch its way to the outside stepping into the stretch, having lost some position to GREATVIEWS, came out slightly after a left handed tap leaving the three-sixteenths marker, ultimately forcing the rider to check hard and yank the mount off another twosome in close proximity to the outside, never re-gained full interest en route to grabbing the last major check. LION IN WAIT showed the way from the inside, proved no match when challenged by the winner after entering the turn, kept within range to the head of the stretch then gave way. GREATREVIEWS stalked the leader from the two path, was already being asked prior to six furlongs having been run, angled three wide into the stretch, flattened out soon afterwards then was reported after the race to have bled.

NORTHERNSTREETGAL brushed the off side stall at the start, chased four wide early on until tucked to the two path nine-sixteenths from home, came under coaxing at the three-eighths, angled six wide into upper stretch, rallied to take command a furlong out, edged clear to the finish kept to task. JURERE coaxed from the start, showed the way in hand from the two path coming under coaxing at the three-eighths under some pressure from LADY BOUNTIFUL to the outside, spun just off the inside for home, dug in and yielded nearing the eighth pole, held for the place honors. NETTI'S LEGACY chased just off the inside, tucked inside half a mile from home, was in a bit tight inside through the latter portion of the turn, cut the corner roused into upper stretch, kept on for the show honors. HUG THE RAIL chased along the inside, got taken in hand briefly at the half mile pole as the aforementioned foe tucked in front, came under coaxing at the seven-sixteenths, swung three wide for home and improved position for the last major share. LADY BOUNTIFUL forwardly placed three then two wide, came under coaxing at the three-eighths prompting the leader through the turn, spun three wide for home and tired. NYROMANIAC chased five then four wide under encouragement from three furlongs out, cornered four wide for home, tired. FROSTY ON THE CASE chased two to three wide down the backstretch and then four to five wide through the turn under coaxing from midway, angled seven wide into upper stretch and tired. GIRLIE'S DREAM sluggish in the early going, chased four wide detached at the tail of the field, came under coaxing at the half mile pole, went seven wide for home and made no impact. SPEEDY ANALYSIS showed brief speed four wide down the backstretch, came under coaxing at the seven-sixteenths in retreat, swung four wide for home and folded.

FASHIONONTHE SURGE off to an alert beginning, remained prominently placed, pressed the issue to the outside of BURKEY'S BABE, doing so in path three, spun into the lane from between opponents, with the second place finisher arriving on the scene as the half was being completed, responded when asked and in the process unshackled itself from the middle of others, as previously-described, right around the three-sixteenths marker, left the eighth pole in possession of a slim lead and in a tussle with the runner up, with each leaning on the other, but only fleetingly, shifted inward thereafter with GYPSY JO following suit, and gamely edged away. GYPSY JO pursued the front hung out three to four wide on the bend, was more entrenched in path four challenging as the widest of a threesome turning for home, fought with tenacity once straightened away but was ultimately denied. CELTIC SERENADE was pulling on the left gradually making her way onto the inside route on the backstretch, picked up interest vacating the premises in the general area of the five-sixteenths pole, wound up six wide a furlong later, mustered up a mild response to be along for the show. YOU PROMISE towards the rail for a good portion of the trip on the backstretch, was maneuvered out into path four from the top of the turn to midpoint, launched a run good enough to make some headway the rest of the way to the end of the bend, swung into the stretch only to soon flatten out. TIFFANY'S VISION took up the chase from the two path on the turn and gave way. SPIRAL BOUND off a half length the slowest, departed the backstretch, never made it presence felt before tiring. BURKEY'S BABE vied to maintain control from the two path, rider applying a firm grip during the initial stages, was no longer under such a hold being tested by the top twosome heading for the top of lane, gave in to the pressure then steadily backed away. LOW IS LAINE backed out and re-loaded, proceeded to break without apparent mishap, was worked inward and saved ground on the turn, got spotted four wide at the head of the stretch, had no offering.

SOLITARY GEM got set up in the pocket after the start, completed the half and cut the corner into the lane, closed the gap to ignite a duel with COCKTAIL COUNTESS by midstretch, out-fought that rival to slip by with approximately a sixteenth remaining, edged away then had enough left at the end to fend off GIA MICHAEL's belated run. GIA MICHAEL took the inside route on the turn, angled six wide heading for midstretch, rallied with some late energy garnering the place. COCKTAIL COUNTESS disputed the pace from just off the inside, pilot firmly rating the mount in the early going, kicked clear of the nemesis during the last few jumps of the run around the bend, felt the presence of the winner coming up to the furlong grounds, did battle before relinquishing in the vicinity of the sixteenth pole then weakened into the show slot. POLARIZATION took up the chase from the three path, got asked to pick it at the midway point on the turn, paused in hand before committing to come three wide into the stretch, saw the rider go back to work, shifted a bit wider in the final stages rallying mildly for the final significant slice of the pot. BEYONDELLE remained along the inside after the break, advanced in a steadfast manner from the top of the turn to its end, swung four wide into the lane, flattened out in midstretch. KAREN'S GEM three wide stepping onto the turn, was sent into path six exiting it, lacked the necessary stretch response. MAJESTIC KISS three wide, was through after going a half. MAHVELOUS MARIE prompted the leader two to three wide for a half and gave way.

NOMINAL DOLLARS chased along the inside coming under coaxing three furlongs from home, spun just off the inside into upper stretch, angled to the rail and rallied up the inside to issue a challenge through the final furlong, poked a nose in front a sixteenth out, dug in gamely to prevail by a head on the wire. MARRIAGE FEVER chased along the inside in range of the front, came under coaxing nearing the quarter pole and angled three wide at that station, was briefly in tight between foes straightened away, rallied to take command a furlong from home, dug in and was headed a sixteenth out, fought on gamely to the finish losing the bob at the end. BAR NONE turned his head to the near side right at the start getting away a beat slow, chased four then three wide from the tail of the field under encouragement from the three-eighths, spun just off the inside for home and kicked on belatedly to secure the show honors. BORSA VENTO was patiently ridden in the two path stalking a threesome contending for control a short distance up ahead, challenged in earnest spinning four wide onto upper stretch, forged to the front in midlane and kicked clear. CARIBBEAN pursued the pace from the two path, waited in hand for a few jumps as three-quarters was being completed, got angled out into path five after stepping into the stretch, rallied for the place. MR. DOUGIE FRESH away well, cut over to the inside, was the innermost of three vying for the lead, from early on the backstretch until the general area of the five-sixteenths pole, was still on top when confronted by a pair of foes to its outside heading home, put up some fight before relinquishing in midstretch then weakened into the show slot. SHADOW RIDER guided over to the inside route during the initial stages, cut the corner into the stretch and came up empty. ALAAPATIQUE ranged up to become part of the pace scenario as the first fraction was being finalized, vied as the widest of three from that juncture to the five-sixteenths marker, was put to a drive coming up to the quarter pole, failed to claim the front and backed way. DISTORTED ADMIRAL three wide at the top of the turn, was in path six by midlane, lacked a response. CALIFORNIA SWING made it into the two path after the break, was between rivals disputing the pace for most of the journey on the backstretch, and then afterwards until a short distance before the quarter pole, gave way.

SECURITIZ bobbled at the break, raced three to four wide just off the pace, came under coaxing at the three-eighths, swung four wide into upper stretch, rallied to issue a challenge through the final furlong taking command seventy yards from home and edged away to the finish. CLASSY CLASS just off the inside early on, got nudged and leaned on by HARLAN PUNCH with six furlongs to go and was forced three wide as that rival made a seam for himself between foes, floated steadily to the four path before tucking back three wide into the turn, came under coaxing nearing the quarter pole applying pressure to HARLAN PUNCH, swung four wide for home, took over command with three-sixteenths to go edging away briefly before coming under threat from the aforementioned foe, dug in and was caught seventy yards from home while having the place honors secured. HARLAN PUNCH inside early on, briefly flirted with going into the gap before being taken in hand off the heels of FOX RULES, nudged and leaned on CLASSY CLASS six furlongs from home taking over the two path and forcing that rival three wide, advanced to poke a head in front half a mile from home, came under ever increasing pressure from CLASSY CLASS through the turn getting out to coaxing at the five-sixteenths, spun just off the inside for home under challenge, capitulated three-sixteenths from home and weakened in the late stages while well clear for the show spot. FOX RULES led early on in hand from the two path, tucked inside briefly with three quarters to run before coming under tepid challenge midway down the backstretch, floated two then three wide briefly before tucking inside half a mile from home headed for command, chased inside through the turn coming under coaxing midway, faded through the latter portion of the turn, spun just off the inside for home and tired. FIELD OF COURAGE stumbled at the start getting away awkwardly and conceding three to four lengths to the front, chased two to three wide detached at the tail of the field, came under coaxing seven-sixteenths from home, swung three wide into upper stretch and trailed throughout.

LAKE PARTY chased a pair of pace combatants towards the two path, quickened getting taken to the outside at the five-sixteenths pole, spun approximately four wide into the lane, went by the weary warriors in the furlong grounds and drew clear. BINKSTER vied for control from the two path to the three-sixteenths marker, had no answer once the eventual winner arrived on the scene, faced no additional closers thereafter and went on to salvage second. BEACH ACCESS travelled near the four path on the turn, got set down for the drive home and was along for the show. ANDRONIKOS along the rail, argued for command to the three-sixteenths pole and faltered. CAN'TWEALLGETALONG strung out three to four wide, was under a drive by the five-sixteenths marker, gave way. MICKEY T saved ground on the turn to no avail. PLATINUM NUGGET in the two path on the turn, failed to menace. MR. SKITTLES three wide departing the backstretch, was never in contention.

WAR EAGLE'S RETURN remained forwardly placed after an apparent clean getaway, settled into the two path, pressed the issue, with the pilot continuing to rate the mount, shook free of the nemesis without need of encouragement during the last leg of the run around the bend, got asked for more coming up to the three-sixteenths marker, responded and drew off. ARBITRATOR vied for the advantage from the inside, matched up with the eventual winner, got let out a notch approaching the conclusion of the backstretch, proved powerless once the top one made its move as three-quarters was being completed, stepped into the lane and held on well for the place. GOING STRONG took the inside route for six furlongs, got angled four wide into the stretch, was outfinished. AWESOME HEART stepped off the backstretch positioned between opponents while having been placed in the two path, fanned out into path four during the initial portion of the stretch, had no offering. STRUEVES STAR strung out three to four wide, the widest off all, on the turn, made no impact. AMERICAN ROAD in the three path taking up the chase, got sent out five wide exiting the turn and gave way.

WUSHU WARRIOR dueled from the five path in hand with the aforementioned foe to his inside until that rival conceded at the nine-sixteenths, tucked to the two path half a mile from home shaking away into the turn, came under coaxing nearing the quarter pole, cornered just off the inside for home before taking to the rail straightened away, dug in under a drive under growing threat to the outside, got headed a sixteenth from home while well clear of the rest for the place honors. THERESA'S BOY coaxed from the gate, crossed to the inside to chase from the two path under prolonged coaxing from the half mile pole, angled four wide into upper stretch, tired and was along for the show honors. LEADING STORM six paths off the inside down the backstretch, tucked four wide into the turn coming under a ride at the seven-sixteenths, swung five wide for home and tired. SHORT KAKES pressed the leader for command two to three wide, was in hand poking a head down in front as the half was being completed, offered up a positive response when asked for more at the three-sixteenths marker and kicked clear. PICTURE DAY travelled three wide on the turn, was driven into path four heading home, got staved off. DECORATOR JENN kept watch on the pacesetter spaced at a slight distance from off the rail, got spotted a tad more off the rail at the top of lane, failed to keep pace with the top twosome. TASTEFUL went about the bend from the two path, got roused at the three-eighths, shifted into path five from upper to midstretch, made no headway. CHINA RIDER took up the chase urged along from the two path, moved six wide down the lane never having made its presence felt. ANGEL FOOD emerged from a tight pack with the advantage, cut over to the inside, carved out the pace with the top one applying pressure to the outside, was set down a short distance from the quarter pole, got displaced nevertheless at that station, then backed away steadily down the stretch.

LUCKY TOWN stumbled at the start recovering outwards and brushing with HOPPER DROPPER, chased along the inside in range of the leader, came under coaxing at the five-sixteenths tipped out to the two then three path, went three wide into upper stretch, rallied to issue a threat through the final eighth taking command a sixteenth from home, then inched away to the finish kept busy to the wire. SHOE LOVES SHOE hustled from the gate, established the front and showed the way three then two wide through the turn, came under light coaxing at the five-sixteenths, spun just off the inside for home, dug in under a drive under growing threat, got collared at the sixteenth marker and ran on clear of the rest and second best. TRULY A MOON SHOT broke out at the start bumping BERGER lightly behind the aforementioned foe, chased two to three wide under a ride from midway on the turn, swung four wide at the quarter pole, weakened in the stretch while isolated between the top pair and the rest of the field in behind when securing the show honors. HOPPER DROPPER brushed the near side stall at the start and then brushed with LUCKY TOWN who recovered outwards from a stumble, chased along the inside under encouragement from three furlongs out, angled five wide for home and tired. THREE TO THIRTEEN coaxed from the start, chased three then two wide under coaxing from the three-eighths, went three wide into upper stretch, faltered in the drive. BERGER bobbled at the break then got bumped lightly by TRULY A MOON SHOT who broke outwards and was forced to steady in behind SHOE LOVES SHOE, chased two to three wide under coaxing from the seven-sixteenths, went four wide for home and made no impact.

UNDER SUSPICION broke on top and retained the advantage, cut over to the inside, showed the way, with CARTWHEEL in attendance out in the two path, became unhitched from that opponent as the half was being reached, settled in upper stretch and was switched over to stronger handling, left the furlong marker holding its largest lead, saw it cut into by the runner up thereafter but held on well late to preserve the decision. LADY MOYNE tracked the winner from the pocket, slipped to the outside approaching the quarter pole, stiffly shouldered her way into the two path at the head of the stretch, took off in earnest after the top one, chopped away at the deficit in the last eighth, but was held off. CARTWHEEL pressed the issue from the two path, appeared to be getting staved off as the second fraction was being finalized, lost its path to the second place finisher at the top of the lane, after that rival initiated contact shoehorning herself into path two, weakened thereafter but salvaged the show. FOREVER DAISY sat in the two path in midpack, was angled to the outside leaving the five-sixteenths pole, wound up four to five wide by the completion of the maneuver, lacked a solid late response. STARLITE MISSION two wide for the majority of the journey on the turn, shifted over to the rail in time to cut the corner into the lane under a drive, made no impact. BOURBON HIGH in the three path and under encouragement on the turn, had no response. LADY VICKI four wide onto the turn, was in path five swinging into the stretch, had no offering. OUT OF ORBIT leapt as the field was sent off and running, smacking into the left side of the starting gate, was slow to settle into stride along the backstretch, sat parked out four to five wide on the turn, got sent out towards path six during the initial portion of the stretch, crossed the finish line having never made its presence felt.

MICOZZI bumped between foes at the start, chased two to three wide until tucked inside half a mile from home, had the leader take to the inside in front nearing the three-eighths and tipped out to the two path finding a seam between that rival and DRIVEN WEST, came under coaxing with five-sixteenths to go latched on the leader, swung just off the inside for home taking narrow command, dug in under a drive edging clear to the finish kept to task. POLAR CITY hustled from the gate, established the front and showed the way in hand four then three wide before tucking to the two path half a mile out, gradually worked his way to the inside midway on the turn, came under challenge at that juncture, got put to coaxing five-sixteenths from home, cut the corner into upper stretch headed for command, was shaken off nearing the eighth pole, tipped out to the three path and ran on to secure the place honors. FULL OF MINE five wide down the backstretch, tucked three wide into the turn, came under coaxing at the seven-sixteenths, swung four wide into upper stretch and kept on to secure the show honors. MY PERFECT GEM broke out at the start bumping MICOZZI into WONDERMEISTER and pinching the pair against pressure from HEAT CHECK, chased two to three wide under a ride from the seven-sixteenths, swung four wide for home and improved position for the last major share. SKEET SHOT chased just off the inside until tucked inside at the nine-sixteenths, came under prolonged coaxing half a mile from home, swung three wide at the quarter pole and weakened in the stretch. DRIVEN WEST forwardly placed five wide down the backstretch, tucked three wide into the turn, came under coaxing at the seven-sixteenths, couldn't keep pace with the top pair through the latter portion of the turn appearing to be trying to get out, swung five wide into upper stretch and tired. HEAT CHECK broke in at the start bumping WONDERMEISTER into MICOZZI and pinching those foes lightly against pressure from MY PERFECT GEM to their inside, chased along the inside under coaxing from the seven-sixteenths, cornered just off the inside for home and made no impact. WONDERMEISTER got bumped between foes at the start and lightly pinched back, chased seven paths off the inside down the backstretch and then four wide through the turn under coaxing with seven-sixteenths to go, went six wide for home and trailed throughout.

CERRETALTO responded to a light hand ride in the early stages establishing itself in the pocket, was still positioned there entering the turn, was forced to remain on hold lacking suitable options coming up to the quarter pole, inched its way to the outside during the ensuing sixteenth and into racing clearance, took off with good energy when given his cue, snatched away the advantage with slightly under an eighth remaining and kicked clear. FORESET prompted BAVARO from the two path, got called upon for more spinning into the stretch, fought his way to a slim lead, only to have the eventual winner bearing down hard to the outside, relinquished a short distance beyond the furlong marker, held on well to secure second. BAVARO gained the early advantage after being put to a brisk hand ride springing forth from the gate, showed the way, still hand urged, but not as feverishly as before, saw the second place finisher draw alongside as the half was being completed, got put to the test by that opponent heading home, put up some resistance before yielding for good, remained a prominent factor before weakening in the final sixteenth. MIGHTY ZEALOUS took up the chase from the two path, got driven into the lane, lacked the needed response. SUDDEN SURPRISE underwent a three wide pursuit on the turn, commenced the stretch a bit wider and gave way. FINAL CHAPTER got guided over to the inside route, was pulling on the bit nestled in amongst rivals on the backstretch, arrived at the top of the lane under a drive and came up empty. WE DID positoned towards the inside by the end of the backstretch, trailed.

VERY ISLAND coaxed from the gate, raced forwardly placed inside with COLTANDMISSISSIPPI latched on to the outside, had that rival take command nearing the seven-eighths and allowed that foe to go by to tip out to the three path into the backstretch, attended the leader three then two wide into the far turn beginning to advance outside to get on near even terms three furlongs from home, took over command and got placed to coaxing with five-sixteenths to go, spun just off the inside for home, edged away to the eighth pole, drifting slightly under a near sided stick at that station and again a sixteenth out, saw some of his margin cut into while holding well to the finish. FIRENZE FIRE broke out at the start taking over the lane of MARCONI and forcing that rival to be briefly taken in hand, raced inside through the first turn before tracking the leader from the two path down the backstretch, remained patiently handled through the far turn just off the top pair, came under coaxing nearing the quarter pole as the top rival was shaking away, got set down angled three wide into upper stretch, offered up a mild kick to cut into the winner's margin slightly while chasing him home in tandem with MARCONI latched on to the outside. MARCONI off half a beat slow, was forced to be taken in hand as the aforementioned rival broke outwards and took over the lane in front, got a bit outrun in the early going growing detached just off the inside at the tail of the field into the backstretch, closed the gap to striking range with five furlongs to go given some rein to do so, came under coaxing slipping three wide at the three-eighths as BAL HARBOUR floated to the scenic route, swung four wide at the quarter pole, offered up a mild kick to latch on FIRENZE FIRE and finish as a team with that rival, chasing the winner home while well clear of the rest for the show honors. COLTANDMISSISSIPPI hustled from the gate, raced just off the inside forwardly placed into the first turn advancing to take command with seven furlongs remaining, shook away briefly into the backstretch and showed the way settling in hand just off the inside into a comfortable rhythm through solid splits, had AVERY ISLAND advance into the far turn and tucked inside awaiting the challenge, came under urging three furlongs from home under direct pressure for the initial time, yielded the front five-sixteenths out, cornered just off the inside into upper stretch shaken off and faltered in the drive. BAL HARBOUR hit the off side stall at the start, chased just off the inside through the opening bend before taking to the four path down the backstretch, tucked three wide with half a mile to run, came under urging at the seven-sixteenths, floated four wide at the three-eighths opening a seam for MARCONI to slip by inadvertently, went three wide into upper stretch and tired.

MUSICALITY assumed a forward position after the start, vied for the lead taking the two path on the turn, was in hand looking the nemesis in the eye as they turned into the stretch, responded when given its cue in the vicinity of the three-sixteenths marker, taking charge and drawing out to his largest advantage by the beginning of the final furlong, continued onward with willingness to stay comfortably in the clear. DARING DESTINY off to a quick start, was put to a snug grip by the pilot afterwards and taken back so as to no longer be latched on to the eventual winner as was the case earlier, pursued that foe from the three path on the turn, was still under a strong hold bearing out approximately eight wide stepping into the lane, taking BAREFOOT ANGEL along for the ride, was allowed to straighten away and settle into stride before being put to a ride at the furlong grounds, had a good finish down the outside of the strip to be the second to make it across the finish line. BAREFOOT ANGEL pursued the front runners three to four wide on the turn, picked up interest as the half was being completed, got floated by an errant DARING DESTINY coming up to the head of the stretch, getting all told carried out about eight wide, was steadied while fairly close to the heels of the aforementioned foe before altering course much closer to the inside in midlane, got going with good run when set down afterwards and rallied with good courage. PIMM'S CUP was pulling on the bit getting set up along the inside during the opening phases, sat loosely pocketed tracking the front runners, got roused angling towards the two path coming into the stretch, shifted back to the rail once by the former pacesetter right around the eighth pole, flattened out and had to settle for last major check. BIG AUK spotted along the rail in short order, took it for nearly a half, was gradually maneuvered into path four from upper to midstretch, made no impact after having done so however. CATAPULT JACK four wide onto the turn, was sent six wide exiting it, had no response. TIME EXPIRED appeared to scrape the side of the gate, then was taken hold by the rider, brought up the back of the pack reaching out in a green manner on the backstretch, sat isolated from the others travelling towards the two path on the turn, galloped six wide into the lane, came under a more energetic ride and made some headway despite bobbing and weaving greenly several times during the stretch run. TAMMANY GIANT went about the turn from the two path, angled out into path five heading for the furlong marker, had no offering. TOAST TO GHOST vied for the lead from along the inside for a little more than a half, retreated after yielding to the top one. LOBBYIST two wide and under a hand drive on the turn, failed to reach a contending position. Following a Stewards' Inquiry in addition to a claim of foul lodged by the rider of BAREFOOT ANGEL against the rider of DARING DESTINY, the latter was disqualified from second and placed third for having caused interference.

LOOSE chased three then two wide in closest aim of the leader, came under coaxing at the five-sixteenths, swung three wide into upper stretch rallying to take command straightened away, drew clear under a drive and was geared down in the final seventy yards to the finish. CARRY YOUR HEELS chased five then four wide coming under coaxing three furlongs from home, went four wide at the quarter pole, ran on to chase the winner home clear of the rest and second best. CURIOUSNCURIOUSER chased just off the inside patiently handled until continuing just off the inside into upper stretch, got roused briefly taking to the inside before being put on pause and placed to a hold when stymied inside in tight behind the weakening TIZ SUPER from the three-sixteenths until nearing the sixteenth marker, was able to angle out at that juncture to the two or three path coming under a drive, showed late interest to secure the show honors, then galloped out well after the finish. TIZ SUPER established the front from the get go and showed the way in hand inside through sensible splits under some pressure from LOOSE to the outside, came under ever increasing pressure from that rival and was put to urging five-sixteenths out in response, spun just off the inside for home under threat, took to the inside when yielding command straightened away and weakened through to the finish. ASIAN'S WAY four then three wide in pursuit, came under coaxing at the seven-sixteenths, swung three to four wide for home and tired. LADY RULLAH chased along the inside coming under coaxing three furlongs from home, spun just off the inside into upper stretch, tired.

BLANK PAIGE away without apparent mishap, got set up in the pocket while making her way along the backstretch, kept watch on the front runners straddling the outer border of the inside route, was in hand late on the bend bidding time, got called upon angling into the two path heading into the stretch, quickened enough to have hitched up to and apply pressure on the ones to catch shortly afterwards, had its seam tighten twice during the going from upper to midstretch, although worth noting neither incident appearing to have any significant or lasting bearing on its momentum, burst through after the second occurrence, splitting rivals with approximately a sixteenth to go, fought her way to the top and kicked clear. HURRICANE SHEILA quickly established control and cut over to the rail, showed the way being rated along for most of the opening half, felt an uptick in pressure settling into upper stretch and had the rider go to work, displayed some determination fending off a pair of opponents to the outside until a slight distance beyond the sixteenth pole, continued to dig in well after yielding to the top one to win the place photo. OVERTIME OLIVIA came inward after losing its footing at the break, shifted into the three path in time for the run around the bend, narrowed in on the leader in a steadfast manner, departed the five-sixteenths pole poised to strike, got turned loose heading into the lane, got corrected with pressure on the right side after lugging in slightly in the general area of the three-sixteenths marker and then a furlong later, battled onward with willingness but had to settle for the show. CUMBRIA prompted the pacesetter from the two path, was switched over to a drive as the half was being completed, gave way. YOU PROMISE squeezed after springing from the gate, took up the chase parked out four wide on the turn, commenced the stretch slightly wide, lacked a response. CLEO moved to the right once the field had been sent off and running, was corrected but not before some contact with YOU PROMISE, took up position in the two path, went about the turn pulling on the left, swung three wide into the lane, came up empty. MAMA'S RED HAT saved ground for the initial half, angled out, eventually getting spotted four wide at the head of the stretch, had no offering.

HARLAN PUNCH bumped at the start by PIONEER SPIRIT who broke outwards, raced seven to eight paths off the inside down the backstretch before tucking three to four wide into the turn, advanced under his own power given some rein through the latter portion of the turn to take command nearing the quarter pole, swung four wide at that station, came under urging nearing the eighth pole and edged clear under a light drive to prevail ridden out to the finish. WAKE UP IN MALIBU seven wide down the backstretch forwardly placed, tucked three wide into the turn and advanced to press the leader through that bend under coaxing from the three-eighths, got displaced in tandem nearing the quarter pole and swung just off the inside for home, proved no match for the top one while keeping on well clear of the rest and second best. PAPA SHOT five wide down the backstretch, tucked to the two path half a mile from home, came under coaxing at the three-eighths, swung three to four wide into upper stretch and passed tired rivals. PIONEER SPIRIT broke out at the start bumping HARLAN PUNCH, established the front and showed the way in hand from the six path down the backstretch under pressure from HAUL ANCHOR before tucking to the two path half a mile from home, came under pressure from outside from WAKE UP IN MALIBU and was placed to coaxing seven-sixteenths from home, shook off HAUL ANCHOR midway on the turn, got displaced nearing the quarter pole, cut the corner for home and tired. HAUL ANCHOR coaxed from the gate, prompted the pace three then two wide, tucked inside half a mile from home coaxed along, got shaken off midway on the turn, faded, swung two to three wide into upper stretch and faltered.

MY PIRATE off inside throughout, departed the backstretch from the four path, was in hand steadily advancing towards the front runners, was within in range when given its cue spinning into the lane, slid over into the two path taking over from a weary TRIANGULATE right around the three-sixteenths poie, left the sixteenth pole in possession of his largest lead, measuring approximately two lengths, saw it readily cut into by GIO LUCKY past that station, held sway, kept to the task at hand. GIO LUCKY tracked the front runners positioned at a slight distance from off the rail, got fanned out into path six from upper to midstretch, closed in well in the final sixteenth en route for the place. TRIANGULATE grabbed a narrow advantage after the break, got guided over to the rail, showed the way, facing pressure from a pair of opponents, out in paths two and three respectively, turned for home with the eventual winner lurking a danger to the outside, got collared a sixteenth down the road, fell back steadily yet managed to salvage the show. PRAGMATIST had the pilot take hold after being squeezed at the start, needed a little time afterwards prior to settling into stride, tucked into the two path for the journey around the turn, came under the whip briefly once beyond midpoint, got sent out into path five during the initial portion of the stretch, earned the last major check by making some headway. CODYLICIOUS underwent a ground-saving journey, got asked, however, never fully so, had no gain. PHOENIX BOUND in at the break, bumped with the nearest opponents, got set up in the three path, vied as the widest of a threesome for the opening half and tired. TEN DOLLAR HAMMER in the two path and nested in between rivals for a good portion of the opening half, was allowed to wander about seven wide down the lane while lacking a response. ACCUMULATOR two wide, vied for control from between rivals to the five-sixteenths pole, kept up its pursuit one on one with TRIANGULATE thereafter to the top of the lane and folded.

J S BACH chased three to four wide coming under coaxing at the three-eighths, advanced to take over command and swung four wide at the quarter pole, went clear under a drive to prevail. WAR EAGLE'S RETURN established the front and showed the way three then two wide coming under coaxing at the five-sixteenths, got headed for command swinging three wide into upper stretch, proved no match for the top one, kept on for the place honors. CHILLY BON BON chased two to three wide under a ride from midway on the turn, angled four to five wide into upper stretch, proved no match for the top one while keeping on to secure the show honors. POSHSKY chased three to four wide under urging from the three-eighths, swung four wide for home, weakened. GOING STRONG coaxed from the gate, chased two to three wide under urging from the three-eighths, went six wide into upper stretch, offered no response and tired. ALTAR BOY chased two to three wide, came under coaxing nearing the quarter pole and continued two to three wide at that station, lost his action straightening away for home and was put to a protective hold, eased up before being pulled up just inside the eighth pole and was subsequently vanned off.

ORCHID PARTY along the outside, cruised up towards the front runners with a sustained four wide run on the turn, got asked for more mustering up a bid in the shadow of the quarter pole, took charge during the ensuing furlong, kicked clear, then finished the final seventy yards being geared down. PARANOIA accompanied the pacesetter from the three path, was let out issuing her challenge for command as the second split was being finalized, proved no match for the winner's stretch response, held on sufficiently so to procure the place. VIRADIA pursued the pacesetter stationed in the three path, fanned out six wide from upper to midstretch, rallied mildly for third. RIGHT ON quickly established control, carved out the pace from the two path, pulling on the left side, came under heavier pressure as the half was being reached, got overhauled soon afterwards, came out briefly and slightly in midstretch with the pressure on the left having relaxed but for a moment, was yanked back on a truer course then steadily backed away. CATHY NAZ remained along the inside route after the break, got put to a drive in the vicinity of the five-sixteenths pole, angled out into path four early during the stretch run, lacked a response. SIMONA two wide onto the turn, was in the three path exiting it, failed to menace. DREAM FEVER in path two, drafted behind the leader for nearly a half before giving way.

FIFTY veered out at the start bumping HONG KONG GARDENS into MAIMO and forcing HONG KONG GARDENS to steady in behind when taking over his lane, established the front and showed the way in hand just off the inside under some pressure from C K DEXTER HAVEN to the outside down the backstretch, shook away a bit from that rival through the turn coming under light coaxing before being set down continuing just off the inside for home, took to the inside straightened away and went clear under ridden out to the finish. C K DEXTER HAVEN prompted the aforementioned foe four then three wide under coaxing from the seven-sixteenths, got shaken off a bit through the latter portion of the turn, swung three then two wide straightened away into upper stretch, proved no match for the top one, kept on to secure the place honors. HOT MESA broke in awkwardly at the start brushing the near side stall, chased four wide down the backstretch striding greenly and stargazing a bit while taking some kickback, came under light coaxing three furlongs out remaining four wide through the turn, closed ground through the latter portion of the bend and swung five wide into upper stretch, ducked in greenly straightened away for home to the three path and continued to close in through the stretch shying inwards through to the finish despite a near sided stick and on the wrong lead, but showed interest through to the finish while along for the show honors. A LOTTA WINE six paths off the inside down the backstretch, chased four wide through the turn under coaxing from the three-eighths, swung five wide for home and weakened. MICKEY T four wide down the backstretch, tucked to the two path half a mile from home, came under coaxing three furlongs out, continued just off the inside into upper stretch and tired. MAIMO bumped at the start by HONG KONG GARDENS due to pressure from FIFTY who veered outwards, chased just off the inside until tucked inside half a mile from home, came under coaxing at the seven-sixteenths, cut the corner for home and tired. HONG KONG GARDENS got bumped at the start by the veering out FIFTY and in turn bumped MAIMO, then was forced to steady as FIFTY took over the lane in front, chased inside early on until tipped out four wide five furlongs from home, tipped out an additional two paths half a mile out, took the overland route through the turn under coaxing from the three-eighths, swung four wide for home and made no impact.

SOUNDS DELICIOUS established control using her own power, gradually worked its way over to the inside, making it there by the conclusion of the backstretch, saw the pilot act with indifference when AUNT ROSE made a cameo appearance at the five-sixteenths marker, no longer had that opponent latched on by the end of the bend, shifted out towards path three being cued up with some light urging settling into upper stretch, responded with authority when put to a drive in the vicinity of the three-sixteenths marker, arrived at the sixteenth pole in possession of lengthy lead, then proceeded to finish the rest of the way home, pretty much handily. KELSOCAIT took up the chase from the two path, swung five wide into the lane, proved no match, but had enough run in her to rally for the place. SHORT KAKES saved ground, cut the corner under a drive, lacked the needed response. AUNT ROSE shifted in the direction of the two path approaching the quarter pole, drew alongside the winner for an abbreviated period as the half was being completed, got shaken off then steadily backed away down the stretch. EDISTO ISLAND strung out three wide on the turn, folded

LOVE YOUR BUTTONS three wide down the backstretch at the tail of the field early on, came under prolonged coaxing half a mile from home, took the overland route through the turn advancing through the latter portion into striking range swinging six wide into upper stretch, closed well to issue a challenge through the final eighth taking command outside a trio inside the sixteenth marker and inched away to the finish to prevail. DUBLIN LEPRECHAUN chased three to four wide from mid pack early on, advanced through the turn coming under coaxing at the three-eighths, swung four wide into upper stretch, rallied to fight between foes through the final eighth and was in the midst of taking command at the sixteenth pole when overtaken by the aforementioned foe and was along for the place honors missing at the end. ARTHUR AVENUE bumped at the start by ED'S QUICK CAT who broke inwards, chased five then four wide down the backstretch before tucking three wide through the turn, advanced on the leader to take over command at the five-sixteenths, swung three wide for home, inched away under a drive to the eighth pole, dug in under threat from a trio, got collared inside the sixteenth pole and preserved the show honors on the wire. CHAMPAGNE PAPI hit the near side stall at the start, chased four wide down the backstretch before tucking to the two path into the turn, came under coaxing midway on the bend, swung three wide for home, rallied angling inside to come up the rail inside a trio, fought on to the finish but was outfinished late on. CLONEDSIMNARD seven to eight paths off the inside down the backstretch, tucked four wide into the turn, came under coaxing at the three-eighths, swung five wide for home and weakened in the late stages. ED'S QUICK CAT broke in at the start bumping ARTHUR AVENUE, showed the way in hand four then three wide down the backstretch before tucking to the two path half a mile from home, came under increasing pressure and was headed for command at the five-sixteenths, continued just off the inside for home and faltered in the stretch. NJORD five to six wide down the backstretch, chased three wide through the turn under coaxing from three furlongs out, swung five wide for home, tired and was eased through the final furlong. FROSTY MARTINI chased just off the inside forwardly placed early on, backed away and came under a long drive from the nine-sixteenths, retreated through the turn, went three wide at the quarter pole and was eased through the stretch. BRILLIANT SCHEME seven to eighth paths off the inside down the backstretch, lost his action near the half mile pole, was placed to a protective hole through the turn, eased up and was pulled up near the quarter pole and subsequently vanned off.

OURO VERDE broke in line with MATINEE BABE once the field was sent on its way, continued to race teamed up with that opponent gradually getting set up in the two path, was yet under some restraint putting away the nemeis midway on the turn, with the runner up having taken over as the primary pursuer, settled into path three in upper stretch before being turned loose, offered a good response to stay comfortably in the clear. BUY FOR LESS underwent a three wide pursuit on the turn, commenced the stretch slightly wider, held on with some willingness for the place although proving no match. YOU PROMISE took up residence along the rail making her way along the backstretch, began to inch her way into path two after stepping onto the turn, finally getting stationed there right around the five-sixteenths pole, was put to a drive for the drive home, made no headway. MAMA'S RED HAT travelled two to three wide on the turn, was set down a few jumps short of the quarter pole, angled approximately four wide into the lane, lacked the required closing punch. NEW YORK EVENT strung out four wide on the bend, failed to reach a contending position. MATINEE BABE argued for command versus the winner from along the rail, kept at it to the three-eighths pole before beginning to fall back, cut the corner into the stretch, stopped rather abruptly losing her action nearing the eighth pole, was tugging hard left side trying to walk to the wire for the last slice of the pot afterwards, proved unable to do so and was pulled up, then after being examined by the track veterinarian, was vanned off.

DA MEISTER established the front and showed the way three to four wide in hand down the backstretch through sensible splits under attendance from a pair but little pressure save their presence, tucked to the two path at the half mile pole and remained a path off the inside through the turn coming under coaxing nearing the quarter pole, spun three wide into upper stretch, inched away under a drive to the eighth pole, dug in under late threat to the inside and held safe to prevail. CHAMPAGNE PAPI three wide down the backstretch, tucked inside half a mile from home, came under coaxing at the seven-sixteenths, swung three then two wide into upper stretch, rallied up the rail inside the final furlong but was ultimately rebuffed to the wire. SHOOT THE GAP forwardly placed five wide between foes down the backstretch latched on the leader, tucked three wide into the turn, came under coaxing at the three-eighths, swung four wide for home, dug in under a drive but was outkicked while along for the show honors. ALPHA TEAM six wide down the backstretch latched on the top pair, tucked four wide through the turn coming under encouragement with five-sixteenths remaining, went five wide at the quarter pole, offered no response. CLONEDSIMNARD five wide down the backstretch just off the pace, tucked two to three wide into the turn, got pushed along with three furlongs to go, angled five wide into upper stretch and weakened in the late stages. IRST six paths off the inside down the backstretch, chased four to five wide through the turn under a ride from the three-eighths, continued five to six wide at the head of the stretch and weakened. CLASSI CAT bobbled at the break, recovered to chase five wide from the tail of the field, came under an off sided stick and tucked three wide with nine-sixteenths to go, chased two to three wide through the turn under urging from the half mile pole, continued three wide at the top of the stretch and trailed throughout.

NISHA away the fastest, retained the advantage, showed the way towards the inside with ROYAL INHERITANCE in attendance out in path two, shifted outward stepping into the stretch becoming two to three wide, had the pilot glance back as the second place finisher, herself availing of ample room with which to do so, was launching a rally from path two, saw the rival angle a few paths to the outside with approximately a sixteenth to go, drifted out slightly in the final stages but managed to get the job done. SOUNDS DELICIOUS tracked the top one along the inside route, got called upon as the half was being completed, was now in path two when the stretch drive began, made up a minimal amount of ground from upper to midstretch, altered course a few paths towards the middle of the strip coming up to the sixteenth pole, kicked into her best but fell short. LITTLEFIREFIGHTER took up the chase from the two path, had the rider go to work in the general area of the five-sixteenths marker, swung three wide into the stretch, mustered a mild response, good enough though to be along for the show. ROYAL INHERITANCE put to some brisk encouragement, rushed up to latch on to the winner early on the backstretch, went on to dispute the pace for the opening half before giving way. KELSOCIT three wide on the turn, went six wide down the stretch always brining up the back of the pack.

FOR POPS established the front and showed the way in hand from the four path down the backstretch, tucked to the two path at the half mile pole, came under coaxing nearing the quarter pole, continued just off the inside for home, edged away under a drive to the eighth pole, held well kept to task to prevail. LOVE THAT JAZZ broke in at the start bumping with SUMMER BOURBON who broke outwards, chased four to five wide down the backstretch and then three wide through the turn under coaxing from the seven-sixteenths, angled five wide into upper stretch, kicked on belatedly to secure the place honors. EDDIE'S GIFT six paths off the inside down the backstretch, chased four wide through the turn under encouragement from the five-sixteenths, cornered five wide into upper stretch, kept on for the show honors. SUMMER BOURBON broke out at the start coming together with LOVE THAT JAZZ who broke inwards, chased five wide down the backstretch and then three wide through the turn under a ride from the five-sixteenths, swung four wide into upper stretch, weakened in the late stages. CHOSEN ONE ELIJAH broke out at the start and was corrected, chased three wide under urging with five-sixteenths to run, went four to five wide for home and trailed throughout.

WILDCAT BELLE took up position in the two path after the break, disputed the pace with rivals on either side for nearly a half, had already extended the advantage by a healthy margin when asked for her best deep into the furlong grounds, came through with the desired response and went on to lengthen away. CLAIRVOYANT LADY in the three path, contended as the widest of a trio until the vicinity of the five-sixteenths marker, got set down to a hard drive prior to spinning into the stretch, failed to close the gap. DA WILDCAT GIRL raced two to three wide on the turn, got fanned out into path five during the initial portion of the stretch and secured the show. DARING PROSPECT remained along the rail after the start, argued as the innermost of three until more than halfway around the turn before giving way. PUPAREE along the inside route on the turn, was set to some hand urging angling into the two path turning for home, had no offering and wound up trailing throughout. AS PER RULING AQ 7-2018, DATED MAY 2, 2019 FROM NYS GAMING COMMISSION, WILDCAT BELLE IS DISQUALIFIED FROM FIRST AND UNPLACED DUE TO IMPROPER PRACTICE, THAT IS HAVING PARTICIPATED WHILE CARRYING TWO POUNDS LESS WEIGHT THAN REQUIRED BY THE CONDITIONS OF THE RACE.

FACTOR THIS chased three then two wide through the turn patiently handled in behind the leader, tipped out three wide into upper stretch set down for the drive taking over the lane of the backing away REGALIAN, rallied to take narrow command at the three-sixteenths, dug in under a drive and inched away to the finish in the late going. INFIELDF IS IN saved ground at the rear early on, tipped out two then three wide at the nine-sixteenths, came under coaxing four wide three furlongs from home, continued four wide into upper stretch, offered up a mild bid to steadily gain in the late stages and just got up for the place honors. DAVKA established the front and showed the way crossing to the two path shortly after the start, remained patiently handled through sensible splits until nearing the quarter pole, when put to coaxing, spun just off the inside for home at that station, dug in under threat and was headed at the three-sixteenths, fought on inside to the finish getting nailed on the wire for the place honors. POLAR OUTBREAK four then three wide in pursuit, came under prolonged coaxing half a mile from home, continued three wide at the quarter pole, weakened in the stretch. REGALIAN three wide in pursuit, came under a ride midway on the turn, began to be shaken off nearing the top of the stretch and continued three wide at that juncture, then weakened in the stretch. DIAMOND SETTER coaxed from the gate, showed brief speed chasing along the inside, came under coaxing at the half mile pole, retreated through the turn, went five wide for home and faltered.

HOLIDAY DISGUISE appeared to come away in good order, raced from off the inside throughout, was patiently ridden keeping watch on the front runners, two to three wide on the turn, paused in hand during the final stages of the run around the bend contemplating options, had the rider choose to angle five wide into the stretch rather than tip into a very usable rail corridor, got roused and surged to the front by the beginning of the final furlong, extended the margin before being well wrapped up for the final seventy yards. FROST WISE showed the way from the two path, shadowed by NO HAYNE NO GAYNE all the while and would continue along on the same set up for three-quarters, got let loose for the drive, proved powerless when confronted by the eventual winner early during the early portion of the stretch run, had no difficulty afterwards however, nailing down place honors. NO HAYNE NO GAYNE prompted the leader towards the three path for nearly six furlongs, got cued up launching a bid as the field turned into the lane, wasn't up to the task at hand as the challenge fizzled out in short order then steadily backed away. LITERATA in the two path departing the backstretch, moved out into path five after entering the stretch, made no headway. DECORATOR JENN strung out three to four wide, the widest of all on the turn, tired. CARRY YOUR HEELS got guided over to the inside approaching the conclusion of the backstretch, failed to make its presence felt at any time from the top of the bend to its end, galloped two wide stepping into the lane, fell farther and farther away from the competition, being eased, en route for the last minor slice of the purse then made it off the track without need of outside assistance.

B THREE five wide down the backstretch, tucked to the two path into the turn, came under coaxing three furlongs from home, swung five wide into upper stretch and ran on to chase the winner home clear for the place honors. PEACHES AND SPICE coaxed from the gate, raced eight paths off the inside down the backstretch until tucked to the two path at the nine-sixteenths, took to the rail half a mile from home, came under coaxing at the seven-sixteenths, angled three to four wide at the quarter pole and improved position for the show honors. VIP NATION bobbled slightly under coaxing from the start getting away on top, settled four wide down the backstretch in closest aim of the leader, tucked to the two path half a mile from home, came under coaxing at the three-eighths as BROADWAY GIRL began to shake away in front, swung three wide into upper stretch, dug in under a drive issuing a challenge through the final furlong to take command nearing the sixteenth pole, then edged away to the finish kept busy to the wire. ANNE'S SONG inside shortly after the start, tipped out to the four path with seven furlongs to go, tucked inside to chase two to three wide through the turn coming under coaxing at the seven-sixteenths, swung four wide at the quarter pole and kicked on belatedly to secure the place honors in the final jumps. BROADWAY GIRL established the front shortly after the start and showed the way in hand three then two wide before tucking inside half a mile from home, shook away given some rein to work with through the latter portion of the turn, cornered just off the inside for home widening away briefly, dug in under growing threat to the outside, got collared a sixteenth out and weakened in the late stages while well clear for the show honors. WITHAFLOURISH three wide in pursuit down the backstretch, tucked inside half a mile from home, came under a ride at the seven-sixteenths, spun just off the inside into upper stretch and tired. SHEZERFIRST five wide down the backstretch, chased three wide through the turn under encouragement from three furlongs out, angled six wide into upper stretch and tired.

INDIAN GHOST was under some hand encouragement establishing control on the backstretch, stepped onto the turn positioned along the inside route, showed the way while possession of a slim advantage, facing pressure from a threesome of opponents parked out in paths two through four respectively, was allowed to settle into upper stretch before seeing the rider resort to stronger handling, responded indeed, kicking away to his largest lead by midlane, lost about half of it in the final furlong, but dug in well enough to preserve the decision. GIO LUCKY gently pinched in the shadow of the starting gate, was moved into the two path, was coaxed along tracking a wall comprised of four rivals, spread across the strip from the rail outward, during the run around the bend, paused in hand as the half was being completed, was given his cue angling six wide into the stretch and into optimal racing clearance, straightened away and began to settle into his best travelling through the furlong grounds, made steady progress in the last eighth en route to garnering the place. THREEFORTYFIVE made light contact with the second place finisher right after all had been sent off and running, raced from well off the rail throughout, pulling on the bit until midway on the turn, was in path four pressing the issue as the widest of a quartet from the top of the bend to its end, got set down for the drive and lacked a solid closing punch. HONG KONG GARDENS brushed at the break, remained in path three, vied for the lead as one of the middle members of a group of four for much of the opening half, got driven into the lane and came up empty. BUSS THE BELL asked practically from the get-go , took up the chase from the two path on the turn and failed to make its presence felt. TEN DOLLAR HAMMER in the two path, disrupted the pace from between opponents as the frontrunners raced around the turn, gave in coming up to the three-sixteenths pole and steadily backed away.

LEAH'S DREAM angled in after the start bumping MY WON LOVE as ZIPPITY ZOOM took over the lane in front, raced four wide down the backstretch, advanced three wide on the duelers through the turn under her own power to issue a challenge nearing the quarter pole, went four wide at that station, got set down for the drive straightened away and took over command, edged away under a drive, saw some of that cut into late while kept to task to the finish. MY WON LOVE bumped after the start by LEAH'S DREAM, chased along the inside coming under coaxing three furlongs from home, angled out six wide into upper stretch, closed well to chase the winner home securing the place honors clear of the rest. ZIPPITY ZOOM coaxed from the gate dueled three then two wide with AWESOME NEWS to her inside, got joined outside by the eventual winner midway on the turn, came under coaxing nearing the quarter pole, swung three wide for home shaking off her main pace rival now under challenge from LEAH'S DREAM, yielded the front straightened away for home, weakened in the late stages while clear for the show honors. SING FOR BEAUTY chased five then four wide down the backstretch before tucking to the two or three path through the turn under a ride from the seven-sixteenths, went five wide at the quarter pole and tired. AWESOME NEWS hustled from the gate, dueled from the two path with ZIPPITY ZOOM to her outside, tucked to the inside at the half mile pole, came under coaxing at the five-sixteenths, got shaken off nearing the quarter pole, tipped out four wide at that station and faltered.

CITY NEVER SLEEPS hustled out of the gate, was given a respite midway on the backstretch before placed back to some encouragement by the half mile pole, cruised up in path three to bid as the widest of a threesome as the field spun into the lane, took charge during the ensuing furlong, lengthened away before getting geared down in the final seventy yards. IT'S HOT OUT away forwardly placed, retained its prominent position, was spotted at a slight distance fending off the main challenger, came under intensified pressure in the form of the eventual winner approaching the quarter pole, was set down only to surrender soon afterwards, dueled down the lane matched up with PHANTOMOFTHEFROST for place honors and gamely bested that one. PHANTOMOFTHEFROST prompted the pacesetter two to three wide, was between rivals heading into the lane, failed to keep pace up with the top one, got engaged in a spirited tussle with the runner up for second and came up short. BAD GUY departed the backstretch towards the two path, got heavily roused by midpoint on the turn, fanned out into path five during the initial portion of the stretch, made no impact. ANALYZE THE BILL two wide and under a drive for most of the journey on the turn, gave way. TRINNI JUICE underwent a ground-saving trip, cut the corner into the lane and retreated.

ROMAN REVIVAL chased four then three wide coming under coaxing at the three-eighths, swung five wide into upper stretch, dug in under a drive rallying to challenge through the final furlong, dueled with BAR NONE through to the finish coming in slightly late and trading a minor bump with that rival to get the nod on the wire. BAR NONE prompted the leader three then two wide coming under coaxing at the three-eighths, took over command nearing the quarter pole and swung three wide at that station, inched away under a drive to the eighth pole, dug in under threat dueling through the final eighth, got bumped very lightly inside the sixteenth marker, then got nailed at the finish. PUPPY MANNERS bumped at the start by DR LUBER'S KISS who broke outwards, chased just off the inside from near the rear, came under coaxing floating four to five wide midway on the turn, went seven wide into upper stretch, kept on to secure the show honors. DR LUBER'S KISS broke out at the start bumping the aforementioned foe, chased along the inside, came under coaxing two to three wide at the three-eighths, swung four wide into upper stretch and improved position in the drive. TWO DOWN ONE TO GO established the front and showed the way lightly coaxed three then two wide under some pressure from BAR NONE to the outside, came under coaxing at the five-sixteenths, got headed nearing the quarter pole and spun just off the inside for home, fought on to the eighth pole before weakening in the late stages. BEAR CLAUSE chased four to five wide under a ride from midway on the turn, angled six wide into upper stretch, tired.

MY ROXY GIRL had the pilot grab hold after coming out slightly at the break, sat reserved towards the two path proceeding along the backstretch, tipped out into path four after stepping onto the turn, beating MIDNIGHT SKY for position by midpoint, narrowed the gap during the remainder of the trip to the quarter pole, turned for home and took off in earnest after the one to catch, drew on near even terms with a furlong to go, saw the nemesis get steered out a couple of paths, giving each a closer look at the other, battled onward with good determination and got the job done. PARANOIA sparred for control from the two path, edged away as the half was being completed, came into the stretch and after a few additional jumps got called upon, began the final furlong desperately clinging to a sliver of a lead, got shifted towards the middle of the strip, saw the top twosome slug it out the remainder of the way home and although putting up a spirited fight, ultimately had to settle for the place. MIDNIGHT SKY rode the rail travelling along the backstretch, changed course and got taken to the outside by the top of the turn, wound up approximately four wide by the conclusion of the maneuver, got cued up for the stretch drive, rallied mildly six wide and was up for the show. RIGHT ON vied for control from along the inside for a half, got angled out a few paths after entering the stretch, didn't have enough left to offer a response and backed away. MY LAST MILLION shied a bit and away from the winner at the start, sat forwardly placed three wide, began to back away shortly after the second split had been recorded.

CHARMING INDY four then three wide through the opening bend, prompted the leader three wide through sensible splits, advanced under very light coaxing to take over command at the five-sixteenths, swung four wide into upper stretch, inched away under a drive to the eighth pole dug in under growing threat to the outside and held safe to the finish. TAOISEACH three wide through the first turn, raced four wide in pursuit from near the rear early on, steadily made progress down the backstretch into striking range into the far turn, came under coaxing at the seven-sixteenths, continued to advance and swung five wide into upper stretch, dug in under a drive rallying to latch on the aforementioned foe inside the final furlong but could not go by getting repelled to the wire while clear of the rest and second best. J J'S DREAMING broke out at the start bumping BIGSHOTINTHENNEWS, chased three then two wide under coaxing from the three-eighths, continued three wide into upper stretch, weakened in the late stages. ZABAIONE bumped at the start by CHILLY BON BON who broke out a step, chased just off the inside, tucked inside half a mile from home, came under coaxing at the seven-sixteenths, spun just off the inside into upper stretch and weakened in the late stages. CHILLY BON BON broke out at the start bumping ZABAIONE, established the front after light coaxing to show the way in hand just off the inside under some pressure to the outside from CHARMING INDY, remained patiently handled into the far turn, had his main prompter increase the pressure and came under coaxing nearing the five-sixteenths, got headed for command at that station, went two to three wide at the quarter pole and weakened in the stretch. BIGSHOTINTHENNEWS bumped at the start by J J'S DREAMING who broke out a step, raced three wide through the first turn settling three to four wide at the tail of the field, came under a ride midway on the far turn, swung three wide into upper stretch and made no impact. FULL OF MINE chased along the inside under encouragement from three furlongs out, angled four wide into upper stretch and tired.

GO KELLY GO away without apparent mishap, remained in the three path afterwards, contended for command to the outside of DEVIL BUSTER beginning from the around the top of the bend, was forced to take up the task from between rivals shortly after leaving the backstretch, turned for home and after settling in, was turned loose, began to whittle away at the deficit, poked a head in front in the general area of the sixteenth marker and edged away. DEVIL BUSTER grabbed the advantage after the start, cut over to the two path, vied matched up with PRINCESS RASHELLE to the inside on the journey leading up to the half mile pole, saw that foe take itself of that pace picture at that station only to get almost instantaneously replaced by the eventual winner, came under yet additional pressure a sixteenth later in the form of STORMY RITA, held out on the top though to lead the competition into the stretch, was completing the run leading up to the eighth pole when switched over to a drive, got collared a sixteenth down the road, offered enough afterwards to salvage second. STORMY RITA off the inside throughout, closed in on the front runners after stepping onto the turn, was in path four competing for command all the way to the quarter pole, came under a drive with a few jumps to spare before the second fraction had been finalized, weakened into the show slot after entering the stretch. BLESSINGORACURSE lunged at the start, raced towards the rear of the pack along with FORMAL EVENT on the backstretch, was three wide entering the turn and fanned out into path five exiting it, put together a mild response to claim the last major check. FORMAL EVENT got guided over to the rail approaching the top of the turn, angled outward for the drive home, began the last eighth six to seven wide, the widest of all, made no impact. SWEET BREEZE two to three wide on the turn, had no rally. PRINCESS RASHELLE made contact with the left side of the starting gate, was pulling hard on the bit racing alongside the second place finisher during the initial stages, became unhitched upon reaching the half mile pile, continued to offer some resistance on the bit, although not as much as before, during the run around the bend, cut the corner and got asked more, didn't offer the desired response and backed away.

MY GIRL ANNIE narrowly in front at the break, retained the advantage, got set up along the inside route, carved out the pace, well rated and with CARLISLE BELLE in accompaniment out in path two, saw that one draw up on near even terms as three-quarters was being completed, settled in upper stretch before getting asked for a bit more, kicked clear while being lightly ridden out. MADELINE'S HOPE remained in the two path after the start, was patiently ridden stalking the winner, encased between opponents for a good portion of the opening six furlongs, shifted out slightly wider for the commencement of the stretch drive, failed to keep pace with the top one but had enough of a rally to procure the place. CARLISLE BELLE prompted the winner towards the two path, seemed poised to strike as the third fraction was being finalized, didn't come through with the desired response then weakened into the show slot. PURRAGEOUS DYNA bobbled springing from the starting gate, raced along the outside, taking up the chase from the three path on the turn, got heavily roused coming up to the three-eighths pole, was sent out into path five spinning into the stretch, gave way. TEQUILA SUNDAY strung out four wide on the turn, never made its presence felt. FOREVER RISING tracked the front runners from the inside route and tired.

THE GREAT SAMURAI just off the inside in aim of the front, was in tight six and a half furlongs out as PECULIAR SENSATION tucked to the two path directly in front while showing the way putting the squeeze on a trio just in behind and to the inside, got bumped between foes by LOST IRON six furlongs from home due to pressure from STAR EMPIRE who grew a bit erratic briefly at that station, remained patiently handled just off the inside down the remainder of the backstretch and through the far turn advancing under his own power nearing the quarter pole, angled six wide into upper stretch, came under light coaxing at the three-sixteenths, took over command nearing the eighth pole put to a drive and inched away to the finish. LOST IRON three wide in close aim early on, was in tight six and a half furlongs from home as PECULIAR SENSATION crossed directly in front, then got bumped by STAR EMPIRE and in turn bumped THE GREAT SAMURAI into ACOUSTIC with six furlongs to go, advanced as soon as STAR EMPIRE got corrected to prompt the leader with five furlongs remaining and putting the erratic rival behind him, came under coaxing nearing the five-sixteenths, took over brief command nearing the quarter pole, swung five wide at that station, had PECULIAR SENSATION get on near even terms straightened away before being displaced by the aforementioned foe, then kept on to chase that rival home and secure the place honors. ACOUSTIC coaxed from the gate breaking a bit awkward, chased inside, got put in tight six and half furlongs out then bumped lightly with six furlongs to go, remained inside patiently handled until put to urging at the five-sixteenths, angled four wide into upper stretch, kicked on belatedly to procure the show honors. PECULIAR SENSATION established the front shortly after the start and showed the way crossing to the two path with six and a half furlongs to run putting a quartet briefly in tight inside which forced BUNYAAN to steady briefly out between foes just after that station, settled into a rhythm just off the inside in hand through sensible splits, got joined to the outside from LOST IRON with five furlongs to go, came under increasing pressure through the turn and was put to coaxing at the three-eighths, yielded the front nearing the quarter pole, went three wide at that juncture, dug in head to head briefly straightened away before being overtaken by the eventual winner in tandem with LOST IRON and was outfinished in the late going. BUNYAAN chased just off the inside very early on, got put in tight between foes with six and half furlongs to run and was forced to steady out and altered to be four then five wide down the backstretch, chased four wide through the turn coming under coaxing at the three-eighths, angled out seven wide into upper stretch, kept on but was outkicked. STAR EMPIRE (GB) four to five wide in pursuit, came in and bumped LOST IRON into THE GREAT SAMURAI and in turn ACOUSTIC six furlongs from home when growing a bit erratic before being corrected, came under a prolonged drive half a mile from home, faded through the turn, swung five wide into upper stretch and faltered.

SHARPE AND READY prompted the leader from the two path, well rated for much of the opening half, was latched on to THROW THE FADE as they turned into the stretch, was given his cue challenging in earnest at the three-sixteenths marker, fought his way to a narrow advantage by midstretch, edged away, driving. THROW THE FADE disputed the pace towards the inside, matched up with the eventual winner, got roused as the nemesis issued its best shot right around the three-sixteenths pole, yeilded soon afterwards, kept going well enough to salvage second. HOME RUN MAKER sat within range of the front runners taking the the two path, tipped one farther off the rail for the start of the stretch drive, made no headway. TILT was quickly placed along the rail, remained there getting set down to a long drive at the top of the turn, fanned out into path six during the initial portion of the stretch, becoming the widest of all by the eighth pole, flashed belated foot nailing down the last major check. BALLARD HIGH got steadied after coming in at the start, was approximately five lengths behind the closest rival early down the backstretch before settling into stride, departed the backstretch from the two path, angled four wide into the lane, had no offering. BROADWAY BANDIT brushed into the left side of the gate, moved inward and secured the pocket, waited behind the top twosome as the half was being completed, tipped to the outside after spinning into the lane, had no response and backed away.

SKYLER'S SCRAMJET three wide in closest aim of the leader, came under coaxing at the three-eighths three to four wide, cornered four wide into upper stretch, rallied to issue a challenge through the final furlong poking a head in front seventy yards from home, then inched away to the finish kept to task. ANGRY MOON coaxed from the gate, showed the way lightly coaxed two then three wide through the turn, swung three then two wide into upper stretch, got roused nearing the eighth pole, dug in under growing threat to the outside, got collared seventy yards from the finish while clear for the place honors. HEY JABBER JAW four wide in pursuit, came under coaxing at the five-sixteenths, angled five wide into upper stretch, weakened in the late stages while along for the show honors. ALL STAR RED chased two to three wide under coaxed from midway on the turn, angled five wide at the quarter pole, improved position by tired foes. OSTROLENKA hustled from the gate, chased just off the inside under a ride from the five-sixteenths, went three then two wide into upper stretch straightened away and weakened. SUMMER REVOLUTION chased five wide under encouragement from the three-eighths, went six to seven wide into upper stretch, made no impact.

KILLYBEGS CAPTAIN remained along the inside after a clean getaway, was patiently ridden keeping an eye on the leader from the pocket, uncovered, increased his presence coming up to the end of the bend, got roused cutting the corner into the lane, with usable passage available along the inside corridor, same like before, was one of five forming a line heads apart from each in the vicinity of the five-sixteenths marker, out-fought them all to emerge at the eighth pole as the undisputed leader, edged away to win by a comfortable margin. SICILIA MIKE off the inside throughout, was three wide stepping onto the turn, got fanned out into path six leaving the bend, straightened away and rallied for the place. PROFESSOR SNAPE stalked the pacesetter from the three path, issued its challenge slightly wider than before in upper stretch, weakened into the show slot after failing to claim the top. ALAAPATIQUE cut over to the inside before the first fraction had been finalized, loosely drafted behind the eventual winner, was in hand for two jumps idling along prior to inching its way to the quarter pole, got angled into path three heading into upper stretch, attaining a seam wide enough with which to launch a rally, kept up with the ones to catch before flattening out in the final sixteenth. NEW MOON pursued the front runners stationed in path four, swung out into the five path for the drive home, made no headway. HOLDING ACES took up the chase from the two path, positioned in between opponents, got spotted four wide at the head of the stretch, lacked the needed response. BUDDY ANTHONY kicked away from the others after the start, showed the way on an open lead for the opening half, travelling about in the two path, came under severe pressure nearing the three-sixteenths pole, succumbed in short order and steadily backed away.

CALCULATED RISKER chased just off the inside from mid pack, came under coaxing at the seven-sixteenths, tipped out a path past the five-sixteenths and swung three wide into upper stretch advancing to take command straightened away for home, inched away under a drive to the eighth pole, dug in and held that margin to the finish to prevail. H MAN two to three wide down the backstretch, chased four wide through the turn under coaxing from midway, angled six wide into upper stretch, ran on to chase the winner home and secure the place honors. APPEALING HENRY chased four then three wide coming under coaxing at the five-sixteenths, swung four wide for home, dug in under a drive and had CALCULATED RISKER drift safely in front, altered to the two path inside the eighth pole and offered up a mild bid. ROSSIE VAL three wide at the tail of the field early on, tucked inside half a mile from home, came under coaxing at the seven-sixteenths, spun just off the inside into upper stretch and kicked on belatedly to procure the last major share. CODY'S NOTES chased four then three wide under encouragement from three furlongs out, angled four to five wide into upper stretch, kept on through to the finish but was outkicked. FORMAL START chased three to four wide under prolonged coaxing from the half mile pole, went seven wide into upper stretch, passed tired rivals in the drive. NEW YORK BOY chased four wide under coaxing from the seven-sixteenths, cornered six wide at the head of the stretch, made no impact. CONQUEST PRANKSTER dueled from the two path with ST. PATRICK FROST to his outside at times getting bumped and leaned on lightly, shook off that rival midway on the turn, came under coaxing at the five-sixteenths, spun just off the inside for home yielding the front straightened away and faltered. ST. PATRICK FROST hustled from the gate, dueled from the three path with the aforementioned foe to his inside at times bumping and leaning on that rival lightly, got shaken off nearing the three-eighths pole, retreated through the latter portion of the turn, swung four to five wide into upper stretch and folded.

VERY VERY STELLA pinched at the start, slithered over to the rail approaching the conclusion of the backstretch, appeared to be keen for the opening half, with the pilot tempering it down by lightly hand urging the mount along, inched his way into the two path coming up to the head of the stretch, was forced to idle along, stuck behind the runner up directly ahead in its path and MAJOR LEAGUE hogging path three to the outside, altered course a second time a short distance beyond the furlong marker, shoe-horning itself back onto the inside route, slipped by traversing on a narrow strait and edged away. HOLLAND ROAD narrowly out-broke the others and retained the advantage, cut over towards the inside, carved out the pace, straddling the right border of the inside route, was turned loose under heavy pressure from MAJOR LEAGUE as the pair turned for home, dug in with determination to fend that opponent off only to get pounced by the top one from the opposite side, had that foe daringly move by with approximately a sixteenth remaining, battled onward, but had to settle for the place. MAJOR LEAGUE pressed the issue two to three wide, was put to a drive issuing a stiff challenge beginning from the quarter pole, kept at it before weakening in the final sixteenth. WILL DID IT saved ground for the opening half, was asked to pick it angling to the outside from the five-sixteenths marker, wound up in path three a furlong later, failed to fire appreciably. JET BLACK in a bit springing from the gate, was pulled off the winner after making some light contact, sat forwardly placed in the early going, travelled three wide on the turn and gave way.

A DIFFERENT STYLE established the front from the get go and showed the way safely in front in hand just off the inside, remained patiently handled through the turn awaiting a challenge, swung two to three wide for home set down for the drive, drew clear under a drive to the eighth pole, saw some of that margin cut into while holding well and clear to the finish. GLOBAL CITIZEN a bit reluctant to load prior to the start, chased four wide down the backstretch from just off the pace, tucked to the two path half a mile from home, came under coaxing at the three-eighths, angled four wide into upper stretch, offered up a mild kick to secure the place honors holding off a late surging rival to the wire. GLENNWOOD broke out at the start under coaxing forcing JUMPMASER to steady off his heels, chased inside early on growing a bit rank from the kickback and took to the two path five furlongs from home, came under coaxing three furlongs out, angled out six wide into upper stretch and offered up late foot to surge in the final strides but missed for the place honors. JUMPMASER off half a beat slow, steadied off the heels of the aforementioned foe at the start as that rival broke outwards taking over the lane, chased three wide from mid pack early on before advancing to be just off the pace through the turn placed to coaxing with three-eighths to go, swung four wide at he quarter pole and weakened in the final furlong. CALIFORNIA NIGHT coaxed from the gate, chased three wide until tucked inside at the seven-sixteenths put to coaxing, spun just off the inside into upper stretch, weakened in the drive. DEVINE ENTRY chased along the inside, tipped out to the two path at the half mile pole, came under a ride at the five-sixteenths, went four wide into upper stretch and weakened. SMOOTH B chased just off the inside until tucked to the rail half a mile from home, got coaxed along with three furlongs remaining, swung three to four wide at the head of the stretch and tired.

EXCHANGING SECRETS quickly established control, moved onto the two path, showed the way, with the runner up in attendance to the outside, got turned loose spinning into the stretch, responded with good energy and drew off. LADY CONSTANCE pressed the winner thee wide and proved no match. PERINA'S PRIDE pursued the front runners four to tive wide on the turn, stepped into the lane and mustered up a mild kick to claim the show award. DEAN'S TICKET forwardly placed in the four path, had no rally. CAUSEWAY CUTIE broke to the outside, coming into contact with GLOTONA AGAIN, rode the rail for the opening half, got sent out to the outside at the five-sixteenths marker, wandered seven wide down the stretch making no impact. MARNESIA BIG GIRL took up the chase from the three path to the top of the stretch and gave way. LIL RENEGADE well off the inside throughout, was three to four wide for the start of the run around the bend, got manuevered to the outside for the drive home until near the eight path, had no offering. GLOTONA AGAIN squeezed hard at the start, got set up back into the path two afterwards, never reached a contending position. SLAM CHOWDER underwent a few bumps at the start, the last one being the worst of all, left the half mile three wide, and would continue onward trailing throughout.

DANNY CALIFORNIA four wide in pursuit, came under coaxing at the three-eighths, continued four wide into upper stretch, dug in under a drive issuing a challenge through the final furlong, tussled with the runner up through to the finish taking narrow command seventy yards from home and preserved it to the wire. SPEKE coaxed from the start, pressed the pace three wide coming under coaxing nearing the quarter pole, took over command and swung three wide at that station, inched away under a drive to the eighth pole before coming under threat from the aforementioned foe to the outside, knocked heads and was overtaken seventy yards from home while well clear of the rest. HOKULEA chased three then two wide, came under coaxing nearing the quarter pole, angled five wide at that station, weakened in the stretch. THREE GOALS coaxed from the gate, established the front shortly after the start and showed the way from the two path lightly coaxed along under pressure to the outside from SPEKE, got put to a drive at the five-sixteenths, yielded the front nearing the quarter pole and spun just off the inside for home at that station, then weakened in the drive. CARMINE'S HONOR chased four then three wide from the tail of the field, came under coaxing three furlongs from home, swung six wide into upper stretch and trailed.

TRUE TIMBER remained in the three path after the start, pressed the issue as the widest of a threesome for the opening half, got set down spinning into the lane, forged her way to the front after a spirited tussle with the same duo to the left and kicked clear. GORGEOUS CHARLI came away forwardly placed, got set up in the two path, was forced to fend off opponents from each side during the initial half, saw each one pick up interest as the second split was being finalized, put up a good fight, but fell back by a sliver during the going from upper to midstretch, staged a mild comeback in the last eighth to snatch away second from the inside-running POP THE HOOD. POP THE HOOD along the rail, argued as the innermost of a trio for control to the end of the bend, responded when given her cue issuing a stiff challenge as the field turned for home, emerged at the eighth pole leading narrowly but with both TRUE TIMBER and GORGEOUS CHARLI each showing no quit, relinquished to their relentless pressure and weakened into the show slot. MORE FRONT two to three wide on the turn, tracked the ongoing pace dispute a short distance up ahead, swung four wide into the stretch, failed to fire appreciably when asked. SPECIAL INTENTION away the tardiest, departed the backstretch from the two path, was hand urged travelling along the turn, angled five wide, the widest of all, into the stretch, came up empty. Dense fog covered Aqueduct making it burdensome to view the race.

QUANIQUE six to seven wide down the backstretch, chased two to three wide through the turn under coaxing from the three-eighths, swung four to five wide for home, closed well to issue a challenge inside the final sixteenth and just got up in the last jumps. JUMP FOR JOY three to four wide in aim of the early leader, advanced through the turn to take over command near the five-sixteenths, swung three wide into upper stretch, inched away under a drive to the eighth pole, dug in under late threat and was nailed on the wire. OUR WHIM chased five then four wide under coaxing from the five-sixteenths, continued four wide into upper stretch, weakened in the late stages. PERSKY'S SPIRIT hustled from the start, cut the pace four then three wide down the backstretch coaxed along before tucking to the two path into the turn, came under threat from a pair and yielded the front at the five-sixteenths, spun just off the inside for home and weakened in the stretch. SOPHIA'S HEART four to five wide down the backstretch, tucked inside half a mile from home, came under coaxing at the three-eighths, cornered two to three wide at the quarter pole and tired.

SAVE THE SANGRIA took the inside route to the quarter pole,shifted towards the two path when set down for the drive home, closed in on the leader, wore down that rival inside the sixteenth marker then had enough run left at the end to preserve the decision. SUSANS FUNNYBONE pursued the frontrunners from the three path on the turn, fanned out four to five during the initial portion of the stretch, finished with good late energy down the center of the strip to garner the place. WICKED HUNTSMAN gained control in short order, showed the way on a loosely-contested lead, spaced at a slight distance from off the rail, moved out into path three when put to a drive at the head of the stretch, was collared a few strides beyond the sixteenth pole, then weakened into the show slot. SCOTTISH DEVIL was corrected after starting to break to the outside, stalked the leader from the two path to the end of the bend, lacked a solid stretch response and backed away. WHERESTHEBARBER put a brisk hand ride at intervals along the backstretch, responded to that encouragement by reaching out in a climbing-like motion, proceeded along in the two path early on the turn, lightly coaxed, picked it up when asked at the midway point, this time without a hint of greenness, got driven five wide into the lane showing some momentum, straightened away and readily closed the gap, asked but not fully so. SHARP BID strung out four wide on the turn, failed to menace. SIMMA CUM LAUDE faded after displaying brief foot, got eased then walked off the track under its own power.

BATTLE STATION hustled from the gate, dueled from the two path with STONEY BENNETT to his outside through swift splits in the slop, tucked inside half a mile from home, came under coaxing nearing the quarter pole taking narrow command nearing that station, swung two to three wide into upper stretch shaking off his main pace rival, dug in confronted a furlong out by the runner up, got headed for command nearing the sixteenth marker, came again gamely inside to get back in front nearing the finish. MORNING BREEZ chased the duel in closest pursuit three to four wide under coaxing from the half mile pole, advanced on the top pair nearing the quarter pole, swung four wide at that station, dug in under a drive issuing a challenge through the final furlong, took over narrow command nearing the sixteenth pole, dueled through to the finish fighting on but was outgamed at the end and forced to settle for the place honors. NEW YORK HERO two to three wide in pursuit, came under encouragement midway on the turn, angled five wide into upper stretch, offered up a mild kick to secure the show honors. STONEY BENNETT dueled from the three path with BATTLE STATION to his inside, came under coaxing at the five-sixteenths getting displaced from the lead at that station, swung three wide for home, got shaken off straightened away and weakened. ANALYZE YOUR LUCK bobbled at the break conceding three lengths to front, chased four wide under coaxing from the three-eighths, angled six wide into upper stretch and trailed throughout.

CONQUEST TWISTER stayed along the inside after the start, got engaged in a duel with the runner up seemingly from the get-go, got turned loose as their fight spilled over into the stretch, popped out of the fog leading by a body length at the eighth pole, dug in with good determination to stay in the clear. BLUEGRASS SINGER broke alertly and cut over to the two path, went at it with the winner, that rival stationed along the inside route directly alongside, was put to a drive heading home, was the second to reach the furlong marker, fought well to the end but got denied. SHUFFLE UP saved ground to upper stretch, failed to close in on the top twosome but managed to salvage the show. GOING STRONG stepped onto the turn from the tour path, was about as wide for the commencement of the stretch run, missed out on third. RING NECKED took up the chase three wide and between foes on the turn, gave way. STRUEVES STAR strung out three wide at the half mile pole, never made its presence felt. Dense fog covered Aqueduct making it burdensome to observe the race.

CHRISTMAS SKY the quickest out of the starting gate, cemented itself to a prominent positoin proceeding along the chute, showed the way with GRANDPA'S ARIANNA in attendance along the outside for a majority of the opening half, continued on the front end, coaxed and under much lighter pressure from the aforementioned rival during the run around the bend, was in the general area of the three-sixteenths marker when switched over to a drive, held on well in the final stages to prevail. HEXAMETER broke open the gate, but didn't run off, appeared to have no mishaps once the field had been released, raced from along the outside throughout, sat perched in the three path after departing the backstretch, got cued up for the drive home, beginning it now stationed in the four path, flashed some late energy en route to garnering the place. FOR HONOR had the gate pop open much like the runner up, and like that foe too, didn't run off, settled into path two after coming from the barrier in good shape, took up the chase from the two path positioned in the middle of opponents, cut over to the rail approaching the conclusion of the backstretch and would take it to the end of the bend, got called upon as three-quarters was being completed, tipped into the two path and continued to challenge in earnest, wasn't up to the task at hand then weakened into the show slot once beyond the sixteenth pole. SAND SHARK took the inside route and was never involved. GRANDPA'S ARIANNA disputed the pace to the right of the eventual winner for nearly a half before dropping back a bit, was let out a notch but failed to latch on to CHRISTMAS SKY a second time, was two wide entering the turn and three wide exiting it, gave way.

PROLETARIAT four to five wide in pursuit just off the pace, tucked three wide into the turn and steadily advanced on the top pair coming under coaxing with five-sixteenths to go, swung five to six wide into upper stretch, rallied to issue a challenge through the final furlong digging in gamely to take command inside the sixteenth marker and prevail kept to task. LUCKY TOWN four to five wide prompting the leader down the backstretch, tucked to the two path half a mile from home, remained patiently handled until set down four wide into upper stretch, dug in under a drive taking brief and narrow command inside the eighth pole, got displaced inside the sixteenth marker, fought on inside but was ultimately denied. FILLET OF SOLE three wide in pursuit, came under coaxing at the seven-sixteenths, angled six wide into upper stretch, offered up a mild bid. IMASUPERSTAR coaxed from the gate, showed the way in hand just off the inside until tucked to the inside half a mile from home while under some pressure to the outside from LUCKY TOWN, came under coaxing nearing the quarter pole, spun three wide at that station, dug in under threat from a pair and yielded inside the eighth pole, then weakened in the late stages. JOY DRIVE chased three then two wide under coaxing from midway on the turn, angled five wide into upper stretch, weakened.

HOLLAND PARK appearing keen after springing from the starting gate, remained in the two path, was wedged in tight between rivals as the journey around the clubhouse bend commenced, tipped out into path three stepping onto the backstretch but not before having made some light contact with AMERICAN LINCOLN, began to go about in a more professional manner after the second split had been finalized, vied as the widest of a threesome on the far turn, was given his cue for the drive home, sputtered onto the right border of path three before corrected and put back on a truer course, out-fought the two others to his inside to begin the last eighth holding a slim advantage, trudged on home to get the job done. HOARD the first out of the starting gate, responded to the brisk hand ride that followed to establish control during the run leading up to the crown of the opening bend, cut the pace, feeling pressure from a pair of opponents to the outside, was again forced to fend off the same twosome after departing the backstretch, got set down coming up to the quarter pole, mustered up some resistance before relinquishing to the top one in the furlong grounds, fought onward but had to settle for the place. AMERICAN LINCOLN strung out three wide entering the first turn, was forced to take up the chase on HOARD with an eager HOLLAND PARK leaning on him for a good portion of the trip towards the backstretch, inched away from the last-mentioned foe and worked out a tuck into path two shortly after entering the backstretch, started to argue for control from between its fellow front runners at the half mile pole after the top one moved up to increase its presence, got put to a drive undertaking the task, kept at it until approximately a sixteenth to go before weakening. WHYAMISOLUCKY three wide on the first turn, was one path closer to the inside route on the subsequent one, failed to make any impact. CURLIN'S NEW MOON lost its footing after scraping the left side of the gate, got guided over to the rail and went on to save ground to no avail.

DA WILDCAT GIRL broke out at the start and was corrected, chased just off the inside in aim of the front, came under coaxing at the five-sixteenths, swung four wide into upper stretch, got leaned on by LOYAL HEART nearing the eighth pole, took command at that station, came out leaning on her main foe nearing the sixteenth marker before edging away to the finish. LOYAL HEART four to five wide in pursuit down the backstretch, chased four wide through the turn coming under coaxing at the five-sixteenths, swung six then five wide for home straightened away, came in leaning on the aforementioned foe nearing the eighth pole, dug in latched on offering up a mild bid and was leaned on herself by that same rival nearing the sixteenth pole before being shaken off and ultimately repelled. SOXY RUBY bumped at the start by LEMME ROCK who broke inwards, chased four then three wide from the tail of the field albeit from striking range, came under coaxing at the three-eighths, swung six wide into upper stretch, ran on through the drive to secure the show honors clear of the rest. E WARFARE pressed the pace of LEMME ROCK from the three path, took over command just off the inside midway on the turn placed to coaxing, spun three wide for home, came under threat from a pair to the outside and yielded nearing the eighth pole, then weakened through to the finish. BON HEIR chased four then three wide through the turn under encouragement with five-sixteenths remaining, angled five wide into upper stretch, tired in the drive. LEMME ROCK broke in at the start bumping SOXY RUBY, showed the way in hand just off the inside under pressure from E WARFARE to the outside, tucked inside half a mile from home, came under coaxing at the seven-sixteenths, got displaced midway on the turn, spun just off the inside for home and faltered.

WESTWOOD prompted the leader from the two path, challenged in earnest as the front runners made their way into the stretch, out-kicked the nemesis to take charge during the ensuing furlong, saw the runner up readily close the gap in the final sixteenth, but made it to the wire in time to preserve the decision. SPARTIATIS remained along the rail after the field had been sent off and running, kept an eye on the front runners having been set to a hand ride nearly from the get-go, lost some ground nevertheless during the opening stages of the run around the bend, had the pilot resort to asking the mount for more after the half had been completed and still even more spinning approximately three wide into the stretch, closed in menacingly in the final sixteenth only to come up short. STILL KRZ off to a sharp start, retained the advantage, set the pace towards the inside, firmly rated in the early going, got turned loose as the eventual winner cranked up the pressure coming up to the quarter pole, relinquished soon afterwards, then weakened into the show slot. LEX VEGAS off the inside throughout, stepped off the backstretch from path three, inched up to the ones to catch, angled out into the four path for the stretch run, made no headway. TOTAL TAP saved ground to the top of the lane and came up empty.

SEETHISQUICK chased four then three wide under coaxing from the five-sixteenths, went six wide into upper stretch, kept on well clear of the rest for the show honors. DIAL JOSH hustled from the gate, chased six paths off the inside down the backstretch and then four wide through the turn under coaxing from the three-eighths, swung six wide for home and tired. BRILLIANT SCHEME bumped at the start, chased three to four wide under coaxing from the three-eighths, swung four wide for home, made no impact. HARLAN PUNCH sat forwardly placed along the rail, pulling at intervals during the initial stages, responded when let out a notch at the midway point on the backstretch to grab away the advantage from RUN FOR JAMES, showed the way being tailed by that one, turned into the lane with MILLS however in hot pursuit, drifted out at times down the lane but stayed in the clear. MILLS chased the pace towards the two path, got called upon angling three wide into the stretch, came out a few paths from left handed stick work and got staved off. TESTOSTERSTONE leapt out at the start, cut over to the rail right afterwards and rode it for over three-quarters, began to shift to the outside right around the three-eighths pole, got driven out into path six from upper to midlane, straightened away and gained mildly late. TURCO BRAVO (CHI) off the inside throughout, launched a mild run from the half mile pole to midpoint on turn two, failed to sustain it even when put to a drive a sixteenth later then steadily backed away. RUN FOR JAMES broke forwardly placed, led the field in the early going, set up in the two path, got overhauled by the eventual winner midway on the backstretch, went on to stalk that opponent from the middle of others on the far turn, arrived at the top of the lane with little left and gave way.

KAREN'S GEM hitched up to GIA MICHAEL nearly from the get-go, continued to apply pressure on that opponent towards path two for three-quarters, saw the second place finisher come much wider into the lane and followed suit by swinging much wider into the stretch herself, settled into the four path by the three-sixteenths marker, drove to the lead during the remainder of the journey leading up to the eighth pole, shied in the direction of the middle of the strip at intervals when fed left side stick work yet kicked clear. GIA MICHAEL broke on top and after being placed to hand urging retained the advantage, cut over to the inside route, showed the way with the eventual winner in attendance out in path two, got committed to a drive a few jumps short of the quarter pole, went out into path three spinning into the stretch, got vanquished before safely through the furlong grounds, drifted out a bit more getting left behind, then ducked in during the last stages, likely reacting to a puddle, but with this incident in no way affecting its impending order of finish. BLISSFUL BREEZE at or near the inside, proved no match. MY ROSE OF SAVANNA mostly three wide on the turn, trailed throughout.

SPLIT TIME appeared a little keen on the chute, pulling on bit tipped to be outside CRYINTHEMOONLIGHT after crossing onto the main track, was switched over to mild hand encouragement and soon settled into a more professional way of going about, departed the backstretch from the three path, sat perched from out there keeping watch on the leader before advancing, coming up to the quarter pole, cruised up virtually under its own power to take over as three-quarters was being completed, drew out to her largest lead from upper to midstretch, had the pilot seem indifferent squandering some of its hefty lead past the sixteenth marker, arrived at the wire having been for the most part best described as being lightly ridden out. SALTY SMILE pursued the front runners stationed in the two path, angled out into path five during the initial portion of the stretch, picked up some real estate on a confidently-ridden SPLIT TIME in deep stretch. VIP NATION three wide travelling on the turn, was put to a drive getting spotted into path four at the head of the stretch, went on to secure the show. CRYINTHEMOONLIGHT roused for a few strides after springing from the gate, cut over to the inside with the advantage, carved out the pace benignly stalked by the top one to the outside, from the head of the backstretch onward, proved powerless when the winner made its move right around the five-sixteenths marker, steadily backed away after stepping into the lane. PUFFERY along the inside route to upper stretch, failed to menace.

HALLOWEEN HORROR at a considerable distance from off the rail at all times, pursued the leader from the four path on the turn, was given his cue challenging in earnest spinning into the stretch, closed in on HEMBREE in a steadfast manner, getting up in the shadow of the finish line. HEMBREE forwardly placed along the inside after the start, tipped to be outside VILMA coming up to midpoint on the backstretch, stepped onto the turn, was in reserve taking over from the previously-mentioned rival soon afterwards, slid over to the inside by the five-sixteenths marker, cut the corner and had the rider go to work, came out after some abbreviated left side pressure yet stubbornly held off the eventual winner during the ensuing furlong, began to come out yet some more, this time despite the rider applying strong stick work from the opposite side to counteract it, got nailed with a few jumps to spare. MICOZZI took up position in midpack after the start, raced two to three wide under a hard drive on the turn, shifted to the outside until approximately seven wide, rallied mildly for third. BASELINE four wide entering the turn, was sent out into path six exiting it, flattened out and lost out on the show. GLENNRICHMENT at or near the two path for six furlongs, angled into path four for the drive home, lacked the needed response. E J'S LEGACY took up the chase three wide on the turn, got roused by the five-sixteenths pole, gave way. VILMA coaxed along while showing the way towards the inside, got overhauled by the runner up after going a half, backed away steadily thereafter.

PALLADIAN BRIDGE three wide in pursuit down the backstretch in aim of the leader, tucked inside half a mile from home, advanced through the turn under coaxing from the three-eighths, took over with five-sixteenths to go, swung four wide into upper stretch and drew clear under a drive to prevail. BARRIER TO ENTRY broke in at the start bumping SAME KINDA CRAZY, pressed from the five path down the backstretch and then three wide through the turn under a ride from the three-eighths, swung five wide for home, proved no match for the top one while keeping on for the place honors. ANDESINE eight paths off the inside down the backstretch, chased five wide through the turn under coaxing from the three-eighths, went seven wide for home, improved position for the show honors. SILLY SISTER seven to eight paths off the inside down the backstretch, raced four wide through the turn under motivation from midway, angled six wide into upper stretch and weakened. UNREPENTED seven wide down the backstretch, chased two to three wide through the turn under coaxing from the three-eighths, swung five to six wide for home and passed tired rivals. SAME KINDA CRAZY bumped at the start by BARRIER TO ENTRY who broke inwards, chased four to five wide then three wide through the turn under a ride from the three-eighths, spun just off the inside for home and tired. ZEALOUS SCHOLAR lightly coaxed showing the way four wide down the backstretch, came under ever increasing pressure from flanking challengers while in the two path through the turn, yielded the front with five-sixteenths to go, went four wide for home and faltered in the stretch.

MINERALOGY put to a firm hold, spurred away from the competition during the opening phases nevertheless, pulling on the bit while doing so, settled down to a more professional manner of going in time for the beginning of the run around the bend, arrived at the head of the stretch and after being straightened away was switched over to stronger encouragement, responded, although coming out a couple of paths in reaction to some left side stick work, and scampered away from the lone stretch threat, that being ADIRONCACK DREAM. ADIRONDACK DREAM made solid contact with FACADE right after the field had been sent on its way, recovered after a couple of jumps and took up residence along the inside route, appeared unsettled from the five-sixteenths marker to the quarter pole, finally getting checked at the top of the lane, required some effort getting worked into path four by midlane, proved no match while dominating the others himself en route for the place. HONOR AND PLEASURE pursued the front runners from the two path on the turn, saw the rider call the mount for more by the five-sixteenths pole, was maneuvered into path four during the early stages of the stretch run, got outfinished. CELTIC SCOUT four wide midway on the turn, was strung out seven wide by the eighth pole, made no impact. HAMPTONS HOLIDAY bumped soundly with its direct neighbor to the left after springing from the starting gate, settled into stride soon afterwards and got set up in path two, raced in midpack, went several paths wider travelling down the stretch and backed away. YOU LIKE THAT three wide at the top fo the turn, was slightly wider early in the stretch drive, had no offering. HEAT CHECK at or near the inside to the quarter pole, failed to menace. REGERE three wide entering the turn, failed to contend. FACADE lost the rider after being sandwiched at the start, was fortunately for the sake of the others, sufficiently isolated as the riderless trailer afterwards, then after being apprehended by the outrider, was walked off the track. Following a Stewards' Inquiry focusing on the start, the result was allowed to stand and the race was declared official.

DARING DESTINY lost its footing after taking an awkward initial step springing from the starting gate, responded to some light hand encouragement right afterwards and assumed the top, showed the way towards the inside route, held in reserve and being shadowed by the second place finisher to the outside, began to build up the advantage with a few jumps left before the half was completed, settled into upper stretch and was switched over to a drive, left the eighth pole in possession of its largest margin, squandered a significant amount of it belatedly, but held on well enough to stay in the clear. BAREFOOT ANGEL got set up in the two path after being released by the starter, accompanied the winner from the two path, became unhitched late on the bend, got asked for more for the drive home, was worked into path four, making it there by the eighth pole, cut into the deficit belatedly. OUR AMERICAN STAR got guided over to the rail on the backstretch, went about the turn under a hand drive, vacated the inside past the five-sixteenths marker, finished the maneuver near path four a furlong or so later, lacked the necessary late stretch response. BIG AUK travelled three to four wide, the widest of all on the turn, tipped out into path five at the head of the stretch, made no impact. PIMM'S CUP forwardly placed from off the inside during the opening phases, moved into path three midpoint on the turn, completed the trip to the quarter pole and got cued up, was gradually shifted over to the rail during the ensuing furlong, flattened out. TIME EXPIRED two wide at the top of the turn, was slightly wider at the top of the lane, never made its presence felt.

EGYPTIAN PIONEER three to four wide down the backstretch, tucked to the two path half a mile from home, patiently waited in behind a trio through the turn until nearing the quarter pole, swung five then four wide into upper stretch set down for the drive, went clear under a drive and was geared down in the late stages to the wire. A LOTTA WINE pressed the pace of MY PIRATE from the four path down the backstretch and then just off the inside through the turn coming under coaxing three furlongs from home, took over command nearing the quarter pole, came in slightly at that station under threat forcing MY PIRATE to pause briefly inside, spun three wide for home and weakened in the stretch while along safe for the place honors. MY PIRATE coaxed from the gate, showed the way in hand from the three path under some pressure from the aforementioned foe to the outside, tucked inside half a mile from home, came under coaxing three furlongs out, got displaced nearing the quarter pole and was forced to steady briefly at that station as A LOTTA WINE came in slightly, cut the corner into upper stretch, weakened and was along well clear for the show honors. SIDEWINDER five wide down the backstretch, tucked three wide into the turn, came under a ride at the three-eighths, swung four wide for home and tired. PRAGMATIST chased four to five wide detached at the tail of the field, came under prolonged coaxing nine-sixteenths from home, swung five wide into upper stretch and made no impact. SWIPING DAN brushed the near side stall at the start and was hustled away, chased six paths off the inside down the backstretch and then three to four wide through the turn under a drive midway, went six wide into upper stretch and faltered.

HIT IT ONCE MORE was corrected in time to avoid getting entangled in a minor bumping incident right after the start, responded to mild urging to take control along the chute, glided over to the inside route, coasted along on a loosely-contested lead, was still in reserve as the third fraction was being finalized even as members of a nearby firing line of four spread across the track from the rail outward were being urged along in varying degrees, was in the vicinity of the three-sixteenths marker before getting called upon for more, gave the desired response to remain comfortably in the clear. CAN YOU DIGGIT escaped making contact with rivals on either side during the very opening stages of the contest, got set up towards the back of the pack, departed the backstretch from the four path, picked up interest as six furlongs was being reached, was the outermost of a foursome potentially poised to strike at the winner stepping into the stretch, failed to dent the deficit, but rallied with some willingness nevertheless to garner the place. PAPA SHOT took up the chase from the three path, spun into the lane from between foes, lacked the necessary response. UNCLE SIGH bumped from between rivals in the shadow of the starting gate, with the more significant contact being with EXTINGUISH CHARM, cut over to the inside route, kept watch on the top one, was put to a drive leaving the five-sixteenths marker, slipped into path two at the head of the stretch, made no late headway. CLUTCH CARGO brushed at the start, gave chase from the three path, got called upon a few strides short of the quarter pole, arrived at that station in the middle of opponents, had no rally. EXTINGUISH CHARM bumped at the start, underwent a two wide pursuit, got turned loose spinning into the stretch, lost position after being outkicked, altered out into path five with under a furlong to go and soon gave way.

FIELDING GOLD prompted the leader outside three wide coming under coaxing at the five-sixteenths, took over command continuing three wide into upper stretch, edged clear under a drive to the finish kept to task. WILSHIRE STAR established the front from the get go and showed the way in hand just off the inside under some pressure from the aforementioned foe to the outside, came under coaxing in concert with that rival at the five-sixteenths, spun just off the inside for home headed for the front, chased the winner home clear of the rest and second best. MR. EURO four wide in pursuit, came under a ride midway on the turn, continued four wide into upper stretch, weakened in the drive while along for the show honors. SPRING EMPEROR four to five wide chasing from mid pack, came under coaxing three furlongs from home, cornered five wide at the head of the stretch, weakened. BARATTI coaxed from the gate, chased two to three wide under a prolonged drive from the nine-sixteenths, spun just off the inside for home and tired. THIRSTY DONNERSTAG chased along the inside under prolonged coaxing from the nine-sixteenths, tipped out three wide at the seven-sixteenths, swung six wide into upper stretch and offered little. THE ORPHAN MIRACLE chased three to four wide from the tail of the field early on, came under prolonged coaxing with nine-sixteenths to run, went four to five wide at the quarter pole and made no impact. BUNYAAN tossed his head slightly and was away awkwardly at the start, chased six wide down the backstretch and then five wide through the turn under coaxing from the seven-sixteenths, cornered seven wide at the head of the stretch and tired.

ORCHID PARTY cleared a pair of opponents during the initial stages to grab the advantage, got guided over to the inside, showed the way on a narrow lead, pulling slightly on the left, continued on the front end during the run around the bend, shifted in the direction of the three path when asked for more spinning into the stretch, staved off the second place finisher. MY LIGHTNIN STRIKE tracked the winner from the pocket, cut the corner having been placed to a drive, failed to dent into the deficit. FORMAL EVENT reserved in the two path, got maneuvered into path five from upper to midstretch, made no late headway. MISSIMPAZI pressed the top one stationed in the two path, challenged four wide spinning turning for home, was not up to task at hand. OVERBOOK got brushed from both sides after losing her footing at the break, sat three to four wide taking up the chase on the turn, was taken in hand coming up into close proximity to another in midlane, altered course to the inside and held its ground late. CLIMB THE LADDER underwent a two to three wide pursuit, ventured into path six while backing away down the stretch. SPA ANGEL two wide entering the turn, was fanned five wide exiting it, failed to menace. MOLLY'S LANE brushed at the start, was strung out three wide at the three-eighths pole, folded. THEA AFRODITI brushed at the start, went on to save ground on the turn to no avail.

MIZZEN MAX coaxed from the gate, prompted the pace of RIBBONITE from the two path between foes through the turn coming under coaxing with three-eighths to go, took over command swinging four wide into upper stretch, dug in under threat from a trio through the final furlong and held on gamely to prevail. SUGARILLE bumped between foes at the start who each broke her way, chased three wide from near the rear coming under a ride at the three-eighths, swung four wide into upper stretch, angled to the rail at the three-sixteenths and rallied to issue a challenge through the final sixteenth but just missed at the end. STRAWBERRY TEQUILA broke in at the start bumping SUGARILLE, raced four wide in aim of the leader, came under coaxing stacked outside a trio through the turn with three furlongs remaining, swung five wide into upper stretch, rallied latched on the leader and dueled through the final furlong but was ultimately repelled at the finish. SATIN SHEETS broke out at the start bumping SUGARILLE, chased just off the inside under coaxing from the seven-sixteenths, angled six wide into upper stretch, dug in under a drive rallying latched on through the final sixteenth but was outfinished in the late stages. EIGHTH COMMANDMENT chased along the inside coming under prolonged coaxing with nine-sixteenths to go, angled five wide into upper stretch, closed through the drive with a mild kick but was outkicked by the top quartet. CATS HALO five wide down the backstretch, tucked to the two path half a mile from home, got coaxed along at the seven-sixteenths, swung three wide into upper stretch and offered no response. AWSUN ROAR three wide prompting the pace between foes, came under coaxing at the three-eighths, angled five wide into upper stretch and tired. RIBBONITE cut the pace crossing the inside and came under pressure from a trio, got coaxed along the innermost of a quartet stacked across the track midway on the turn, yielded the front coming to the quarter pole and went three wide at that station, then tired in the stretch.

JAVELIN forwardly placed from the get-go, contended in the two path from between rivals for the lead, was still in hand poking a head down in front at the three-eighths pole, even with the one being displaced, that being TRULY A MOON SHOT, by now under a drive, was put to encouragement turning for home, drifted out a bit while drawing away. TALE OF MIST sat four wide with a good view of a three-ply contested pace, was called upon spinning slightly wider into the stretch, straightened away and proved no match. ALUM pressed the issue from the three path as the widest of a trio for over a half, lost contact with the winner once into the stretch and weakened into the show slot. TRULY A MOON SHOT was used early from the gate to grab a narrow lead, proceeded along the rail forced to fend off a pair of opponent parked out in paths two and three respectively, failed to re-claim the lead when set down midway on the turn, continued along as a prominent factor to the head of the stretch before faltering. QUAI VOLTAIRE maneuvered out into path four early on the backstretch, tipped into the two path at the half mile pole, stepped into the stretch and had no rally. GEHRIG steadied getting squeezed at the break, took the three path for most of the journey to the top of the lane while bringing up the back of the pack, failed to fire when asked.

PRESERVATIONIST chased just off the inside coming under coaxing half a mile from home, angled five wide into upper stretch, rallied to take over command a sixteenth out and drew clear to the finish kept to task. MR. BUFF hustled from the gate, cut the pace along the inside through swift splits under some pressure from HAMMERIN AAMER to the outside, got let out spinning just off the inside for home, edged away under a drive to the eighth pole, dug in under threat and was collared a sixteenth out, ran on well clear of the rest and second best. HAMMERIN AAMER prompted the pace four then three wide under coaxing from the five-sixteenths, swung four wide into upper stretch, weakened in the drive while along for the show honors. BORSA VENTO chased four then three wide under coaxing from the half mile pole, cornered three wide into upper stretch, weakened while along for the last major share. WINGMAN saved ground near the rear, came under coaxing just off the inside three furlongs from home, continued just off the inside into upper stretch and improved position by tired foes. DEVINE DENTAL two to three wide just off the pace, tipped out to the four path half a mile out, came under a ride at the three-eighths, swung five wide into upper stretch and faltered. NIGEL'S DESTINY bobbled at the break, chased along the inside under encouragement from midway on the turn, went three wide for home and made no impact. SHAMCAT six wide down the backstretch, raced a bit choppy gaited five wide through the turn growing detached at the rear, got put to a protective hold at the quarter pole, was eased up to a walk in the stretch, pulled up nearing the sixteenth pole and was subsequently vanned off.

POWER NAP sat loosely pocketed for nearly a half, angled four wide into the lane and took off with good energy after the leader, wrested away the advantage with approximately a sixteenth remaining and kicked clear. BREEZE BURNER disputed the pace from the two path, was not being asked for run taking over the front at the top of the bend, edged away to his largest advantage during the run around the bend, was in the general area of three-sixteenths pole when set down to a hard drive, got collared a furlong later, kept going well enough to salvage second. PEGASUS RED pursued the winner from the two path, was put to a drive taking path three for entrance into the stretch, failed to gain. BEAR CLAUSE three wide stepping onto the turn, was fanned out five wide exiting it, went evenly late. LYRICAL MIRACLE sent over to the rail in short order, went about the turn driving, made no impact. SARATOGA HEATER parked out five wide on the turn, continued as the widest of all down the lane travelling six to seven wide, never having made its presence felt. LENNY gunned from the gate, was pulling on the left arguing for control, matched up with BREEZE BURNER, ventured briefly towards path two at times during the opening half, was put to lighter urging after entering the stretch and retreated. CALLANT four wide and asked while racing on the turn, failed to menace.

MO FLASH six paths off the inside down the backstretch, tucked three wide at the half mile pole before making her way to the two path with seven-sixteenths to go, came under coaxing at the five-sixteenths, swung two to three wide for home in behind the top pair before tipping out to the four path straightened away, rallied to latch on the leader inside the eighth pole, dug in knocking heads with that rival taking command seventy yards from home and preserved the margin to the wire. STRING SECTION prompted the pace three wide coming under coaxing at the three-eighths, continued three wide into upper stretch, took over command at the three-sixteenths, dug in under threat knocking heads inside the final furlong and was collared in the late stages and forced to settle for the place honors. MAD DOG MATTERS bumped at the start by MERCURIAN who broke in a step, established the front and showed the way in hand from the two path under some pressure from the aforementioned foe to the outside, came under coaxing at the five-sixteenths under threat, spun just off the inside for home, yielded the front three-sixteenths out and weakened in the late going. MERCURIAN broke in at the start bumping the aforementioned foe, chased four wide under encouragement from midway on the turn, continued four wide for home and tired.

CRIMSON FROST away well, raced at a considerable distance from off the rail throughout, was in the four path stepping onto the turn, got cued up in tandem with SHE'S SO FINE in the vicinity of the five-sixteenths pole, fanned out a couple of paths settling in before taking off after the runner up in earnest, chopped away at the deficit, grabbed away the advantage inside the sixteenth pole and shook free. FULL HOUSE broke on top and retained the lead, was coaxed along showing the way towards the two path for three-quarters, shifted into path three when called upon at the top of the lane, got collared in the last seventy yards. SHE'S SO FINE kept company with the eventual winner for much of the opening six furlongs to that foe's left, began the run around the bend three wide and having been placed to hand encouragemenet, was asked for more a sixteenth shy of the quarter pole, got sent outward until seven wide by midlane, lacked the needed response. TRUTH IN THE LIES prompted the pacesetter from the three path three-quarters and gave way. None of this group of four spent any significant time along the inside rotue.

GIO D'ORO six paths off the inside down the backstretch, tucked four wide half a mile from home, came under coaxing at the three-eighths, angled five wide at the quarter pole, ran on to chase the winner home and prevail in the battle for the place honors. EMPIRE LINE bumped at the start by NINE ROUTE who broke inwards, chased seven paths off the inside down the backstretch before tucking to the three path nearing the half mile pole, got put to coaxing at that station and advanced mildly and briefly between foes into the turn, got shaken off midway on the bend and came under a drive through the latter portion of the turn, swung three wide into upper stretch, kept on through to the finish but was outgamed for the place honors in the late stages. ENGINEERS REPORT chased just off the inside down the backstretch until tucked inside half a mile from home, came under coaxing three furlongs out, cut the corner into upper stretch, weakened in the final eighth.

DEAD BROKE put to vigorous urging after springing from the starting gate, had the pilot resort to a more relaxed hold after proving no match for the second place finisher in the early going, tipped to the outside until four wide early on the turn, picked up interest as the half was being completed, got cued up making a dash towards the middle of the strip leaving the quarter pole, straightened away in path six and took off in earnest after the one to catch, began the last eighth having successfully latched on to that opponent, narrowed in on the determined leader, finally poking a head down in front with approximately seventy yards to go, kept going onward with willingness and under good handling and edged clear. BLINDED VISION away with good speed at the break, shook free of the competition, carved out the pace two to three wide facing no significant pressure from any of the others for the opening half and a little beyhond, got turned loose for the drive home, felt the presence of the top one by the conclusion of the run leading up to and then through the furlong grounds, was reeled in with under a sixteenth remaining, had enough left at the end to salvage second. THE CHAMO pursued the front runners stationed right around the two path, got set down as thesecond split was being finalized, was maneuvered into path five during the initial portion of the stretch, mustered up a mild response to nail down third. REIGN CHARGER sent over to the rail shortly after the start, made no impact off the subsequent ground-saving journey. STREET CAT SAM strung out four wide on the turn, got let out after arriving at the quarter pole, followed up stepping into the stretch by undertaking a zig-zagging venture between paths two and four, one round trip in total, while making no headway. JUSTINSPEIGHTOFIT got guided over to the rail coming up the end of the backstretch, angled into path two at the head of the stretch, gave way.

MORNING BUZZ five wide down the backstretch, chased three wide just off the pace through the turn coming under coaxing five-sixteenths from home, swung four to five wide into upper stretch, rallied to take narrow command three-sixteenths out, dug in head to head coming under an off sided stick inside the eighth pole, came in bumping GETOFFMYBACK near the sixteenth marker and leaned on that rival while dueling to the finish carrying his main danger in a pair of paths still under an off sided stick and got the nod on the line. GETOFFMYBACK lightly coaxed to establish the front shortly after the start, showed the way from the two path under pressure from FINAL CHAPTER to the outside, shook off that rival nearing the quarter pole, swung three to four wide into upper stretch, dug in confronted by the aforementioned foe and was headed at the three-sixteenths, dueled through the length of the stretch with that rival getting bumped a sixteenth out and leaned on resulting in being pushed in two paths through the final sixteenth, battled gamely to the finish losing the bob on the wire. TOO FAST TO PASS chased four to five wide under coaxing from the three-eighths, angled seven wide into upper stretch, weakened in the late stages while along for the show honors. A FLEET ATTITUDE jostled early with CHOSEN ONE ELIJAH for the three path before conceding that lane to chased two to three wide down the backstretch, tipped out four wide midway on the turn put to coaxing, swung six wide into upper stretch and weakened. FINAL CHAPTER prompted the pace four then three wide coming under a ride at the three-eighths, angled six wide into upper stretch, faltered. CHOSEN ONE ELIJAH jostled early with A FLEET ATTITUDE for the three path, chased three wide under coaxing from the seven-sixteenths, angled six wide into upper stretch while along for the show honors. There was a Stewards' Inquiry into the stretch run focusing on MORNING BUZZ as well as a Claim of foul by the rider of GETOFFMYBACK alleging interference in the stretch from MORNING BUZZ. After review, MORNING BUZZ was disqualified from first and placed second having been deemed to have interfered with GETOFFMYBACK in the stretch run before the result was declared official.

MISS SIZZLE blazed her way out of the barrier, getting away one length faster than any other, kept control and get set up in the two path proceeding along the backstretch, was held in reserve leading the field up to the quarter pole, shifted onto path three turning into the stretch, arrived at the three-sixteenths marker and was switched over to a drive, responded with gusto and scampered away. IMPAZIBLE CREEK pressed the issue two to three wide, proved no match once into the stretch, dug in late to preserve the place. TOUGH OLD BIRD towards the inside traveling on the backstretch, was moved into path two path approaching the half mile pole, kept watch on the front runners, was forced to remain unasked for her best, bidding time behind some traffic after the half was completed, inched its way to the outside spinning into the stretch, out-muscled CATCHMEWITHASMILE for position by taking over path four during the first half of the stretch run, but only after the third and final bump between them, lacked a solid late closing punch and had to settle for the show. CATCHMEWITHASMILE well off the inside throughout, was hung out four to five wide, the widest of all on the turn, was asked to pick it up nearing the quarter pole, found itself abreast of TOUGH OLD BIRD at the top of the lane, mustered up resistance, refusing to yield its path to the aforementioned foe, as they exchanged a sum of three bumps between them during their private battle over the next furlong, reluctantly succumbed by midstretch then rallied mildly. TEQUILA SUNDAY cut over to the insdie route shortly after the start, and would wind up the one spending the most time along it, went about the turn under a brisk hand ride, was put to a drive angling into path two coming into the stretch, lacked the needed response. MAGARI forwardly placed three wide to the top of the stretch, gave way.

GORELLI five to six wide down the backstretch, tucked four wide into the turn, came under coaxing five-sixteenths from home, continued four wide into upper stretch, rallied to issue a challenge and take command nearing the eighth pole, inched away under a drive kept busy to the finish. INDIAN SOLDIER three to four wide in pursuit, came under coaxing at the three-eighths, angled five to six wide into upper stretch, offered up a mild kick to chase the winner home and secure the place honors. COMPETITIVENESS established the front shortly after the start and showed the way in hand from the four path under pressure inside from SIR ALFRED, then came under pressure outside from TERRY O GERI and MANIFEST DESTINY, tucked to the two path into the turn, came under coaxing at the five-sixteenths, spun just off the inside for home having shaken off his pace prompters now confronted by the eventual winner, dug in and yielded the front nearing the eighth pole, weakened in the late stages while preserving the show honors. SIR ALFRED bumped at the start by CONQUEST EXPRESSO who broke outwards, ranged up inside to prompt the aforementioned foe down the backstretch, before being shaken off a bit into the turn, tucked inside through the bend coming under coaxing three furlongs from home, cut the corner into upper stretch giving chase and weakened in the late going. CONQUEST EXPRESSO broke out at the start bumping SIR ALFRED, chased four to five wide down the backstretch and then three wide through the turn under a ride from the three-eighths, swung five to six wide into upper stretch, offered no response. THEORY three to four wide in pursuit, came under a ride at the seven-sixteenths, spun just off the inside for home, weakened in the stretch. TERRY O GERI prompted the leader from the six path down the backstretch and then from the four path through the turn coming under a ride midway, swung three wide into upper stretch shaken off a bit and tired in the drive. MANIFEST DESTINY hustled from the gate, raced forwardly placed five wide down the backstretch and then three wide through the turn urged along from the three-eighths, swung four wide at the quarter pole and faltered.

STARTWITHSILVER, initially put to some light hand encouragement after springing from the gate but without showing much response, had the pilot take hold and patiently ride the mount the remainder of the journey to the quarter pole, quickened upon reaching that station, gave chase towards the two path, picked up speed getting fanned to the outside for the drive, wound up approximately seven wide by the completion of the maneunver, accelerated to the top by the eighth pole, lengthened away, best described as being ridden out on the mild side. BEE NOTEWORTHY cut over to the rail after the break, made her way about it briskly hand ridden at first, got called upon for much more at the five-sixteenths pole, slithered her way into the two path for the drive home, rallied with energy enough to secure second. PICCO UNO underwent a four to five wide pursuit on the bend, lacked a solid late closing response. SANDY BELLE showed the way while racing two to three wide, got turned loose after finishing the half, proved powerless to stave off the eventual winner then steadily backed away. FROSTY MARGARITA tracked the front runners under hand encouragement along the backstretch, was given a respite once onto the turn before getting re-roused a short distance from the quarter pole, cut the corner having an open corridor with which to put to use, bid for the next furlong then flattened out. SHIMMERING MOON stalked the leader three to four wide for a half before giving way.

COMEONCOMEONCAT established the front and showed the way four then three wide in hand, remained patiently handled through the turn coming under coaxing nearing the quarter pole, swung five wide at that station, edged clear under a drive to the eighth pole, dug in under tepid late threat and held safe to prevail. FLIPPED chased six then five wide through the turn under coaxing from the seven-sixteenths, angled seven wide into upper stretch, closed well to issue a tepid late threat but was ultimately staved off to the wire. THERESA'S BOY chased just off the inside coming under coaxing at the three-eighths, swung three wide at the quarter pole, ran on to procure the show honors. MERGER OF BANKS coaxed from the start, chased three to four wide under a ride from three furlongs out, angled six wide into upper stretch, weakened in the drive. SCRUTINIZE chased two to three wide from the tail of the field, came under a ride at the seven-sixteenths, continued two to three wide for home and passed tired rivals in the stretch. ANYTHING PAZIBLE chased four to five wide under coaxing from midway on the turn, went five to six wide into upper stretch, weakened. WON'T BE MISSED coaxed from the gate, chased three wide down the backstretch until tucked inside half a mile from home, got coaxed along midway on the turn, cornered two to three wide into upper stretch and made no impact. PEQUENO GRANDE hit the off side stall at the start getting away last and conceding four lengths to the front, chased four then three wide under a ride from the three-eighths, continued four wide for home and offered little.

SUMMER PUNCH reluctant to load, proceeded to break away from the gate without apparent mishap, got set up in the two path, sparred with FREE KITTY for the opening three-quarters, was turned loose spinning into upper stretch, vied with vigour to poke a head down in front by the beginning of the final furlong, continued to go at it with the pesky second place finisher and edged away. FREE KITTY grabbed a narrow advantage after making some contact with PRESUMPTIOUS at the start, cut over to the inside route, showed the way with SUMMER PUNCH in attendance out in path two, saw six furlongs getting completed with the equines still directly alongside each other, was put to a drive springing from the quarter pole, yielded reluctantly in midstretch, failed to re-claim the top but had enough left at the end to salvage second. PRESUMPTIOUS brushed from both sides right after the field had been sent on its way, took up the chase from the two path, was driven four to five wide into the stretch, put together a mild response to be along for the show award. BOGULATOR underwent a three wide pursuit on the turn, was already being roused by the five-sixteenths marker, stepped into the lane and lacked the needed response. BUY FOR LESS made contact with PRESUMPTIOUS in the shadow of the gate, remained along the rail afterwards, failed to pick it up when asked midpoint on the turn then retreated down the stretch.

AFLEET MARTINI chased along the inside under coaxing from the three-eighths, swung three wide for home before tipping out to the four path straightened away, rallied to engage the top pair inside the final furlong taking command inside the sixteenth pole, then inched away to the wire. NO HIDING PLACE coaxed from the start, dueled from the two path with DR LUBER'S KISS to his outside, came under coaxing at the five-sixteenths, spun just off the inside for home, dug in under a drive shaking off his main pace rival a bit a furlong out, got collared inside the sixteenth marker and ran on to secure the place honors. DR LUBER'S KISS coaxed from the gate, dueled from the three path with the aforementioned foe to his inside, came under coaxing at the five-sixteenths, swung three wide for home, dug in under a drive and kept on to preserve the show honors. BAR NONE chased three wide under coaxing from the seven-sixteenths, angled five wide into upper stretch, stayed on through the stretch but was outkicked. ROMAN REVIVAL chased two to three wide under a ride from the seven-sixteenths, swung four wide into upper stretch briefly between foes and paused in a bit tight at the head of the stretch before weakening through to the finish.

CODY'S NOTES off the inside throughout, stalked the front runners from the three path, angled one path farther off the rail for the drive home, rallied partnered up with CHILLY BON BON towards the one to catch, was between rivals going by the pacesetter with approximately a sixteenth remaining, continued onward engaged in a spirited tussle with the runner up and gamely won the bob. CHILLY BON BON took up the chase two to three wide, was more in the three path for the start of the stretch drive, began to close in, together with the eventual winner to the outside, duelled with the winner after the lead did indeed change hands in the last sixteenth, fell short of emerging the victor by the narrowest of margins NONNA'S BOY put to an abbreviated hand ride after leaving the gate, sped to the top, edged away as the pilot switched over to a firm grip on the reins, sailed along on an open lead, saw the first two finishers cut into the gap during the final stages of the run around the bend, got reeled in right around the sixteenth pole, was then held together well enough long enough to secure the show. OPEN BAR two wide entering the turn, was swung five wide exiting it, gained ground steadily en route for the last major check. CLEVER SOUL saved ground to the head of the stretch and made no impact. SNOWFLY strung out three wide at the top fo the turn, went primarily six wide down the stretch with no offering. AWESOME HEART brought up the back of the pack two wide for nearly three-quarters, was under some encouragement angling into path three heading home, lacked a response and wound up trailing throughout.

REAL DAN coaxed from the gate, chased from the six path down the backstretch before tucking four then three wide through the turn coming under coaxing three furlongs from home, took over command nearing the quarter pole, swung five then four wide straightened away for home, edged clear under a drive to the eighth pole, dug in and held safe to prevail. CONNOLLY'S BEADS had a shoe repaired in the paddock prior to the post parade, chased three then two wide coming under coaxing at the five-sixteenths, angled five wide at the quarter pole, closed well to latch on the aforementioned foe as that rival hit the wire. KILLALA BAY hustled from the gate, chased four wide under a ride from the three-eighths, angled six wide into upper stretch, weakened while along for the show honors. WUSHU WARRIOR five to six wide down the backstretch prompting the pace of PLAYBOY JOHNNY, tucked to the two path half a mile from home, came under coaxing when poking a head in front three furlongs out, got displaced from command nearing the quarter pole, swung three wide at that station and weakened in the stretch. HOLYCOWITS PATRICK grew detached at the tail of the field after striding a bit greenly facing some kickback early on before tipped out to the six path down the backstretch, tucked three wide into the turn, remained patiently handled through most of the bend until nearing the quarter pole, swung five wide at that station, came under a light drive and made no impact while gaining some education and showing some interest late. PLAYBOY JOHNNY showed brief speed showing the way from the two path until tucked inside at the nine-sixteenths while under some pressure from WUSHU WARRIOR to the outside, got headed by that rival at the three-eighths, came under coaxing at the five-sixteenths beginning to fade, spun just off the inside for home and faltered in the drive.

MIDNIGHT MISSION made contact with THE CARETAKER at the start, rushed up when set to some brisk encouragement to grab the advantage, cut the pace, two wide and being coaxed along, had just inched his way into path three when put to a drive in the general area of the three-sixteenths marker, came under attack from the runner up in the late stages but dug in well to prevail. THE CARETAKER bumped with the winner springing from the gate, got going in short order and moved into the two path, was still as wide stalking the front runners, idled along firmly held stuck behind rivals for a furlong beginning from the five-sixteenths marker, attained a usable seam in the furlong grounds and had the rider go to work, rallied willingly to procure the place. GRASSADY prompted the winner three wide for nearly a half, was slightly wider by upper stretch, lacked a solid closing punch. ALTESINO leaned inward and brushed into the gate as the field was sent off and running, shifted to the outside until four wide early on the turn, angled one path to the outside for the stretch run, made no impact. FORMAL START three to four wide on the turn, had no gain. MACHO MIAH was yanked off a pair of bumping rivals right after the start, cut over to the inside, kept an eye on the winner from the pocket, had enough daylight along the inside corridor with which to launch a rally coming into the stretch, came up empty when called upon.

MO SHOPPING chased four then three wide coming under coaxing at the five-sixteenths, swung four then three wide for home, rallied to take command nearing the eighth pole, edged away under a drive kept to task. GYPSY JANIE chased just off the inside coming under coaxing at the three-eighths, angled four to five wide into upper stretch, ran on for the place honors. JUMP RULER cut the pace from the two path coming under coaxing at the five-sixteenths, continued just off the inside for home, dug in and was headed nearing the eighth pole, weakened in the late stages while well clear for the show honors. SOLITARY GEM chased along the inside, tipped out briefly two to three wide at the seven-sixteenths, came under coaxing at the five-sixteenths, cut the corner for home and tired. RAPID ROUTE chased three then two wide under encouragement from the five-sixteenths, cornered just off the inside into upper stretch, faltered in the drive. BLUSHING JUSTINE away well, raced from the five path early on, grew sluggish and was put to a protective hold before being pulled up around the five-eighths pole, then was subsequently vanned off.

WAKE UP IN MALIBU motored up along the crute to the top using its own natural speed, showed the way stationed at a slight distance from off the rail, heads apart with ROCKFORD, continued along on the same set-up for three-quarters pole, shifted into the three path when set down spinning into the lane, with the nemesis following suit by movnig wider too, dug in with good determination clinging to a narrow lead tp [prove best. BATTLE MIDWAY was taken in hand being pinched at the break, got guided over to the rail soon afterwards, vacated the premises at the midway point on the turn, got cued up heading home, fanned wider and wider until towards path eight, flashed good energy in the final stages to finish in a tie for second. ROCKFORD sparred with the winner two wide for most of the opening six furlongs, shadowed that opponent by coming much wider into the lane, eventually settling into path four, fought willingly but wasn't able to claim the top. OLD UPSTART pursued the front runners two to three wide on the turn, got sent out into path seven during the initial portion of the stretch, straightened away and rallied with belated energy. SHALAKO out slightly at the start, was corrected but not before making some contact with its next door neighbor, moved inward and into the pocket afterwards, got asked for more right around the three-eighths pole, stepped into the stretch and lacked a solid closing punch. CONQUEST BIGLUCK E three wide chasing the pace contestants a short distance up ahead, got roused at the five-sixteenths pole, arrived at the top of the lane and backed away. PRAETEREO in the two path taking up the chase, was through after going three-quarters.

STAY FOND hustled along by the pilot for a good portion of the journey along the chute, responded, cementing itself to a prominent position, cut over to the inside, vied for command, heads apart with OVER MY HEAD for almost six furlongs, was put to a drive spinning into the lane, disposed of the aforementioned foe only to come under attack from the second place finisher, came out to meet up with the nemesis after being fed steady left side pressure in the final sixteenth, dug in to prevail. SPECIAL RISK was lightly urged keeping an eye on the front runners from the pocket during the initial stages, inched her way into path two after stepping onto the turn, tipped out into path three for entrance into the stretch, settled in and was called upon for much more, latched on to the winner by the eighth pole, vied with vigour to the end but was staved off. B THREE two to three wide taking up the chase on the turn, angled five wide for the drive home, proved no match. QUEENOFTHECHANNEL in the two path travelling on the turn, fanned out into path six from upper to midstretch, lbecoming the widest of all, acked a solid closing punch. OVER MY HEAD sparred with STAY FOND towards the two path for three-quarters and gave way. PREZIOSA three wide departing the backstretch, was through by the three-eighths pole.

ALPINE SKY coaxed from the gate, raced inside very early on before tipping out to chase two to three wide under light coaxing from the get go, came under a drive five-sixteenths from home, swung four wide into upper stretch, rallied to issue a challenge to the embattled pair inside the final sixteenth latching on to the outside and just got up in the final jump to prevail. SUMMER READING coaxed from the start, established the front and showed the way in hand from the two path under prompting to the outside from FRIEND OF LIBERTY, came under coaxing at the five-sixteenths as that rival steadily increased the pressure, spun just off the inside for home, dug in under threat and dueled through the stretch clinging to the lead gamely when joined three deep by the aforementioned foe and was nailed in the last stride. FRIEND OF LIBERTY prompted the pace three wide coming under coaxing midway on the turn, steadily increased the pressure on SUMMER READING through the latter portion of the turn, continued three wide into upper stretch reaching near even terms straightened away, dug in under a drive dueling through the final eighth to the finish and was joined outside by the eventual winner, fought on between foes through the final sixteenth but was ultimately rebuffed to the finish. NOT TAKEN chased four then three wide under coaxing from the seven-sixteenths, angled five wide into upper stretch, offered no response. ANYDAYISMYPDAY chased along the inside under coaxing from the seven-sixteenths, cornered just off the inside into upper stretch, weakened in the drive.

CHRISTMAS SKY out-broke the field and retained the advantage, got guided over to the inside, showed the way being rated along for six furlongs, responded when roused, kicking away to her largest advantage during the going from upper to midstretch, remained comfortably in the clear. TOTAL CONTROL stalked the winner from the two path, failed to keep pace once the top one was asked, but displayed some willingness to secure second. RECKLESS HUMOR sneaked her way into the two path past the half mile pole, cut the corner into the stretch and had no response. HARKNESS pursued the front runners from path three on the turn, swung slightly wider into the stretch and backed away. SPRING FOR MORE two wide entering the turn, went four wide down the stretch making no impact. ALABAMA BOUND abandoned the inside route for path three midpoint on the turn, stepped into the stretch and gave way.

DREAMS ARE PAZIBLE established the front and showed the way in hand from the two path, angled four wide into upper stretch, edged away to the eighth pole, came under urging at that station and held well to the finish. NORTHERNSTREETGAL brushed the near side stall at the start, chased along the inside down the backstretch and then just off the inside through the turn coming under coaxing at the five-sixteenths, swung three to four wide into upper stretch, kept on to chase the winner home clear for the place honors. TIZ SURPRISED four wide in pursuit, advanced midway on the turn to latch on the leader briefly when put to urging five-sixteenths from home, angled five wide into upper stretch, weakened in the late stages. CAOIMHE chased two to three wide under coaxing from the three-eighths, angled four to five wide into upper stretch, weakened. THANXFORLASTNITE three wide in pursuit, came under a ride at the five-sixteenths, continued three to four wide for home, tired in the stretch. ROCK ON SANDY chased five then four wide under coaxing from the three-eighths, went six wide at the quarter pole, trailed.

HUG THE RAIL was put back on a true course after beginning to move to the outside at the start, got guided over to the rail and rode it for most of the journey leading up to the conclusion of the backstretch, tipped out into path at the half mile pole, crept up to the leader, eventually grabbing away the advantage in the vicinity of the five-sixteenths marker, using only its power, went on to turn into the stretch and was put to encouragement, shifted out into path four wide yet drew well clear during the ensuing furlong, kept going onward with good energy to maintain that healthy advantage. FORMAL EVENT took up the chase from three path on the turn, suwng outward heading into the stretch, rallied down the center of the strip, that is towards path six, for the place. MEGALOPSYCHIA stalked the pacesetter two to three wide, got set down to a hard drive by the five-sixteenths pole, angled five wide into the stretch, failed keep pace with the top one then lost out on second. STORMY RITA away alertly, seemed destined to be the primary pursuer when a wayward FROSTY ON THE CASE lost its rider on the chute, cut over to the inside now in possession of an open lead, proved powerless when the well-rated winner scooted by at the five-sixteenths pole, backed away steadily down the stretch. SPA ANGEL away last after being squeezed at the break, departed the backstrtetch from the two path and never made its presence felt. LADY BOUNTIFUL was grabbed hold after coming in a bit at the start, got set up towards the inside, vacated the premises at the three-sixteenths pole, had no response. GIRLIE'S DREAM failed to contend. FROSTY ON THE CASE saw the pilot initially hustle the mount along after springing from the gate, appeared to have narrowly attained the lead aproaching the end of the chute, swerved in sharply, covering a distance measuring several paths, bumped lightly with the rail a few times, resulting in the loss of the rider, was apprehended by an outrider and walked off the track. Following a Stewards' Inquiry focusing on the incident in the chute, the result was allowed to stand and the race was declared official.

LADY RULLAH chased along the inside coming under coaxing with seven-sixteenths to go, swung three wide into upper stretch splitting foes before taking command angling to the rail three-sixteenths out, then edged away under a drive kept to task. HAY FIELD broke open the gate prior to the start inspired by SAND CITY who broke open her gate just prior, got bumped at the break by that rival breaking outwards, chased three to four wide from just off the pace coming under coaxing three furlongs out, angled five wide into upper stretch, ran on to secure the place honors. QUESTEQ chased just off the inside coming under coaxing at the seven-sixteenths, advanced to take over command swinging four wide for home, dug in under threat and yielded at the three-sixteenths, weakened in the late going. ANGEL FOOD bumped at the start lightly between foes, chased three wide under a ride from the three-eighths, angled six wide into upper stretch, improved position for the last major share. CLASSIC STONES brushed the off side stall at the start, established the front and showed the way four then three wide under some pressure from QUESTEG to the outside, raced just off the inside through the latter portion of the bend, got headed nearing the quarter pole and spun just off the inside at that station and tired. SAND CITY broke out at the start bumping HAY FIELD into ANGEL FOOD, chased just off the inside under coaxing from the seven-sixteenths, swung four wide into upper stretch and tired.

CLUTCH CARGO shot over to the rail after the start, steadily advanced towards the front runners, bided time in the pocket during the run around the bend, picked up interest as three-quarters was being reached, angled three wide and, after finishing the maneuver, was given his cue, took off with good energy after to one to catch, looming boldly to that one's outside as the final furlong commenced, forged on ahead to take over a sixteenth later and kicked clear. GLOBAL POSITIONING lightly hand urged early on the chute, contended for the lead matched up with BECKER'S GALAXY, began to inch away between the first and second fractions, continued to do so during the next split as well, had the pilot cast a glance back at the competition heading home, shifted into path two when put to a drive, felt the winner's presence by the end of the furlong grounds, got collared in the general area of the sixteenth marker, continued onward with enough run left to preserve the place. MIGHTY ZEALOUS sat forwardly placed for three-quarters, stepped into the stretch and lacked a solid closing response. FLEET IRISH took up the chase from the two path on the turn, was put a drive by the three-eighths pole, fanned out into path six from upper to midstretch, gained well enough to earn the last major check. HERE COMES TOMMY chased the pace towards the two path, got roused angling over to the inside route at the top of the lane, had no rally. BECKER'S GALAXY dputed the pace from along the outside on the backstretch, worked out a tuck into the path two at the top of the bend, kept up the pressure to around the quarter pole then gave way. CAUSE I'M ALEX was pulling on the bit springing from the starting gate, got worked to the inside and rode the rail on the turn, failed to pick it up when asked at the three-eighths pole and faltered.

MEADS BAY six paths off the inside down the backstretch, tucked to the inside half a mile from home, came under urging three furlongs out, swung three wide into upper stretch, closed well with a sustained rally to get up in the final jumps to the wire. JUST BLING IT broke in at the start bumping REYANA REYA DREAMS, vied early on with MAJESTIC KISS and MAHVELOUS MARIE to her inside, shook off those rivals into the turn tucking to the two path around that bend, came under urging five-sixteenths from home, swung three then two wide straightened away into upper stretch, edged clear to the eighth pole came under near sided rein encouragement and drifted out inside the eighth pole and again a sixteenth from home and was caught in the final strides while clear for the place honors. MAJESTIC KISS hustled from the gate, vied early on between foes from the two path before being shaken off a bit into the turn, tipped out three wide put to coaxing at the seven-sixteenths, swung four wide into upper stretch and ran on to secure the show honors. NEON chased three to four wide under coaxing from the three-eighths, angled six wide into upper stretch, kept on for the last major share. ELENATHENA broke open the gate prior to the start inspired by MAHVELOUS MARIE who broke through her gate door just prior, chased along the inside until tipped out to the two path at the nine-sixteenths, came under coaxing at the three-eighths, spun just off the inside for home and weakened in the stretch. SEATTLE FROST broke open her gate door in tandem with the aforementioned foe just after MAHVELOUS MARIE broke through her stall door to the outside, lunged at the start getting away two to three lengths slow after being taken in hand after losing her lane, chased four wide under coaxing from three furlongs out, angled seven wide into upper stretch and made no impact. REYANA REYA DREAMS bumped at the start by JUST BLING IT who broke inwards, chased two to three wide under motivation from the three-eighths, angled six wide into upper stretch and tired. MAHVELOUS MARIE broke through the gate prior to the start inspiring the pair to her inside to pop open their stall doors, vied inside a pair early on until shaken off a bit half a mile from home, came under encouragement midway on the turn, cut the corner into upper stretch and faltered.

WOUNDWITHHEREYES three then two wide a bit keen in behind foes, tucked to the rail three furlongs from home into daylight and advanced well inside the leader coming under coaxing at the five-sixteenths to take command nearing the quarter pole, spun just off the inside for home widening away, went clear ridden out to the finish to prevail. GIANT ENDING established the front and knocked heads briefly from the two path with FORRES LILY to her outside before showing the way in hand into the turn, came under threat quickly nearing the five-sixteenths and was put to urging at that station in response, got displaced from command nearing the quarter pole, swung four wide at that station, proved no match for the top one while running on clear of the rest and second best. FORRES LILY stumbled at the start bumping lightly with JETSAM SIX and recovered under coaxing to duel briefly with the aforementioned foe before prompting that rival while three wide, raced between foes into the turn and was in a bit tight when put to coaxing three furlongs from home losing some position, swung three wide into upper stretch, tired while along for the show honors. STARS WILBURN four wide in pursuit, came under coaxing at the seven-sixteenths, angled six wide into upper stretch, tired. JACQUELINE D five wide down the backstretch forwardly placed, tucked three wide into the turn, placed FORRES LILY briefly in tight between foes at the three-eighths, came under coaxing five-sixteenths from home, swung five wide into upper stretch and faltered. JETSAM SIX bumped lightly at the start by FORRES LILY who recovered outwards from a stumble, chased six then five wide through the turn under coaxing from the seven-sixteenths, swung six wide for home and trailed throughout.

AREWEHAVINGFUNYET away without apparent mishap, made it over to the inside well before reaching the conclusion of the backstretch, was steadied appearing a bit too eager shortly after stepping onto the turn, gained clearance along the rail a few strides late, r with the former pocket sitter, that being DEAN'S TICKET, having abandoned it, moved up into a strong contending position, got tipped out into path three in preparatikon for the drive home, latched on to the ones to catch and was given its cue in the vicinity of the three-sixteenths marker, out-fought the pair of opponents to her inside to take over by the furlong marker, steadily added to the margin in the last eighth. MILAYA broke on top and retained the advantage, saw the pilot hold something in reserve leading the competition from the two path on the backstretch, slipped over to the rail after entering the turn, came under heavier pressure as the third fraction was being finalized and was put to a hard drive, came attack from the eventual winner too a few jumps later, relinquished, but had plenty left to salvage second. DEAN'S TICKET brushed into the right side after tossing her head a split second or so prior to the field being sent on its way, proceeded to rush up into the pocket afterwards, pulling on the bit for a good portion of the opening half, shifted into path two during the early stages of the run around the bend, crept up to issue a challenge in earnest as three-quarters was being completed, was briefly between rivals during its attempt to cfaim the top, failed to do so and backed away. PERINA'S PRIDE underwent a three wide trip to the head of the stretch and gave way. GLOTONA AGAIN strung out two to three wide on the turn, tired.

AUNT BABE just off the pace three then two wide through the turn, remained patiently handled through the bend until nearing the quarter pole, got set down angled four wide at that station, rallied to latch on the leader a furlong out, took over command nearing the sixteenth pole after a brief tussle, then dug in under late threat to prevail. MY ROXY GIRL chased four then three wide under coaxing from three furlongs out, swung four to five wide into upper stretch, rallied to issue a bid through the final eighth but was ultimately repelled to the finish. PAUSEFORTHECAUSE three then two wide in closest aim of the leader, came under coaxing at the five-sixteenths, cornered three wide into upper stretch taking over narrow command, dug in shaking off the former leader three-sixteenths out confronted by the eventual winner, dug in and was collared nearing the sixteenth marker, began to weaken in the late going while preserving the show honors. BEAUTIFUL BUZZ stumbled to her knees at the start, recovered to chase four then three wide in range of the front, came under a ride five-sixteenths from home, angled out six wide into upper stretch, offered up a mild bid. TRINNI NINJA hustled from the gate, chased along the inside coaxed from the get go, spun just off the inside for home, made no impact. VELVET TRINNI coaxed from the start, established the front and showed the way just off the inside under some pressure to the outside through swift splits, tucked to the rail half a mile from home, came under coaxing at the five-sixteenths under pressure, cornered just off the inside for home displaced from the front and tired in the stretch.

TIZ SUPER in slightly at the start, wasted no time establishing the front, was soon joined by PERSKY'S SPIRIT, showed the way from the inside, began to shake free of the nemesis coming up to the three-eighths pole, continued onward before switched over to a drive at the three-sixteenths marker, lengthened away, kept to the task at hand. OURO VERDE quickly spotted along the rail, had already been under strong handling for over a sixteenth before being angling three wide into the lane, went on to secure second. CONNIE A sat forwardly placed three wide, came into the stretch and had the rider go to work, shied briefly from the whip shifting into path five midway in the lane, got outfinished and had to settle for the show. DESERT AFFAIR lunged leftward and smack into the starting gate, was sent into the two path upon recovery, had the rider ask the mount for more by the three-eighths pole, swung five wide into the lane, straightened away and made no late headway. RAHY'S BANDIT shied a bit at the start from minor pressure coming from the eventual winner, got guided over to the inside, failed to make an impact off the subsequent ground-saving journey. THIRTYDAYSINJUNE hung out three wide at the three-eighths pole, wandered into path six during the initial portion of the stretch, lacked an offering. PERSKY'S SPIRIT rushed up, pressed the issue from the two path to mipoint on the turn and gave way. SOPHIA'S HEART carried in slightly at the start, departed the backstretch three wide, failed to reach a contending position.

VALYRIAN dueled from the two path with DELTA OUTLAW to his inside through swift splits, came under coaxing at the five-sixteenths, swung three wide into upper stretch, took narrow command at the three-sixteenths, inched away under a drive to the finish under chase from his main pace rival through to the finish. DELTA OUTLAW dueled inside of the aforementioned foe from the get go through solid splits coming under coaxing at the five-sixteenths, spun just off the inside for home before taking back to the inside straightened away, got headed three-sixteenths out, fought on inside through to the finish while clear of the rest. KENYAN three to four wide at the tail of the field early on, tucked to the two path at the half mile pole, came under coaxing seven-sixteenths from home, swung five wide into upper stretch, had to later out a path nearing the eighth pole as CASIGORDO was guided outside protected, offered up a mild kick to secure the show honors. SALLISAW off half a beat slow, got bumped lightly between foes who each came over into the free space, got away last conceding about two to three lengths to the front, chased two to three wide from just off the pace, came under coaxing midway on the turn, cut the corner into upper stretch and came up empty. HARD HITTER raced three wide in closest aim of the dueling top pair, came under coaxing three furlongs from home, went four wide at the quarter pole and tired. CASIGORDO chased along the inside, came under coaxing at the five-sixteenths, swung three to four wide into upper stretch, had the rider sense something was amiss and was guided outside and placed to a protective hold nearing the eighth pole, was eased up through the final furlong, crossed the finish and was subsequently vanned off.

CANDY PROMISES hustled along early on the cnute, was taken hold and maneuvered over into path four afterwards, was still in that path departing the backstretch, got fanned out into path six after entering the turn, mustered up a mild response to claim third. MILO MILO (ARG) rated from a slight distance from off the inside, got put to the test stepping into the stretch, relinquished before safely through the furlong grounds and steadily backed away. FLASH DRIVE edged away from the competition to take control shortly after the start, sailed along on a loosely-contested lead, spaced at a slight distance from off the rail, stepped into the lane and opened up it up, being ridden out from upper to midlane, was switched over to a drive for the final furlong and went on to lengthen away. WHAT A CATCH pursued the winner three wide on the turn, weakened steadily after entering the lane. ULTIMATEENTICEMENT travelled two wide on the turn, got roused past the three-eighths pole, swung into the stretch, lacked the needed response for the final furlong. NOLINSKI in the two path and under a drive on the turn, gave way. MY MAN MO was pulling on the bit during the initial stgases, sat forwardly placed undergoing a ground-saving journey before backing away in the last eighth. VICAR'S LEGEND angled sharply over to the rail after the start, cut the corner into the stretch, made no impact. LOVER'S LEAP three wide midway on the turn, was never involved. TOUGH OLD BIRD three wide in pursuit, came under coaxing at the five-sixteenths, angled four wide into upper stretch, rallied to steadily gain through the stretch taking command by a head seventy yards from the finish and preserved it tussling to the wire. AMANDA LANE bumped at the start by BANK ELABORATION due to pressure from FIRST DAWN, prompted the pace just off the inside coming under coaxing at the three-eighths, swung three wide into upper stretch and took command straightened away for home, dug in under growing threat to the outside, got collared seventy yards from home and battled on to the finish clear of the rest. FOREVER RISING five wide down the backstretch, tucked to the two path seven-sixteenths from home, came under coaxing at the three-eighths, cut the corner into upper stretch and offered up a mild kick for the show honors. YOU PROMISE hustled from the gate, chased just off the inside early on until tipped out four wide half a mile from home put to urging, chased three wide through the turn, went five wide into upper stretch and weakened. BANK ELABORATION got bumped at the start by FIRST DAWN and in turn bumped AMANDA LANE, cut the pace along the inside under pressure from AMANDA LANE to the outside, came under coaxing three furlongs from home, spun just off the inside into upper stretch, got headed near the three-sixteenths and weakened through to the finish. MAZMANIA four wide in pursuit in aim of the front, came under coaxing at the three-eighths, faded through the latter portion of the turn and went five wide for home, then faltered in the stretch. FIRST DAWN broke out at the start bumping BANK ELABORATION into AMANDA LANE, chased four to five wide down the backstretch until floating out six to seven wide nearing the turn, took the overland route through the bend under coaxing from the seven-sixteenths, continued five wide for home and trailed.

SON OF MINE had the pilot grab hold after coming out slightly being released from the starting gate, was put to a brisk hand ride and rushed up from last to attain a prominent position, stalked a pair of opponents from the three path, ranged up to issue a bid as the half was being completed, took over and was given its cue in upper stretch, steadily drew clear, even while drifting out a couple of paths in the final sixteenth. LIGHTNING BUZZ darted over to the inside route after the start, had its advance towards the front interrupted as FOT was himself getting worked over to the rail at the top of the turn, got steadied, kicked back into stride and kept watch on the front runners, idling in and amongst foes for most of the journey on the turn, got cued up angling to the outside spinning into the stretch, was maneuvered all the way out into path four before securing a usable seam, rallied well enough to garner the place. FULL OF MINE took up the chase two to three wide, was under solid encouragement swinging six wide into the stretch, made no headway in the final furlong. SHAMROCKED stalked the leader from the two path on the turn and gave way. NOBLE AND TRUE was being roused travelling in the two path on the turn, got spotted four wide at the head of the stretch and came up empty. FOT away quickly, remained forwardly placed, vied for the lead towards the two path for a good portion of the trip leading up to the conclusion of the backstretch, slid over to the rail after entering the turn, got put to the rest as the second fraction was being finalized and succumbed.

BINKSTER established the front from the get go and showed the way from the three path in hand under some pressure from UCANTCATCHMYBREATH to the outside, raced four wide through the bend briefly floating his main rival five wide before shaking away, came under coaxing at the five-sixteenths, continued four wide into upper stretch, went clear under a drive and was kept busy to the end. UCANTCATCHMYBREATH prompted the aforementioned foe from the four path down the backstretch, got briefly floated five wide at the three-eighths when put to coaxing, tucked to the three path through the latter portion of the turn before swinging five wide into upper stretch, proved no match for the top one drifting in nealing the eighth pole while well clear of the rest for the place honors. BEACH ACCESS raced rank early on appearing to not be a fan of the kickback when a bit erratic three then two wide, had rivals in front remain outside and settled better nearing the turn, came under coaxing half a mile from home, continued just off the inside into upper stretch, weakened while along for the show honors. SCOTTISH DEVIL four to five wide down the backstretch, tucked to the two path seven-sixteenths from home, came under coaxing at the three-eighths, swung three wide into upper stretch and tired. SHINY MEDAL chased along the inside under a ride from the seven-sixteenths, cut the corner into upper stretch, tired in the drive. THERESA'S BOY three wide in pursuit, tipped out six wide at the nine-sixteenths, came under coaxing four to five wide seven-sixteenths from home, swung five wide into upper stretch and faltered.

WESTERDALE off the inside nearly from the get-go, disputed the pace from the three path, was in reserve opening up making his way on the turn, settled into upper stretch before switched over to stronger handling, scampered away, kept to some urging to the end. RACING RAVEN hustled after springing from the gate, was outprinted early on the chute, got set up in the three path, loosely drafted behind the winner during the run around the bend, commenced the stretch slightly wider, vied with vigour matched up with LABEQ in the final furlong and had enough left to salvage second. LABEQ was pulling on the bit during the initial stages, departed the backstretch at a slight distance from off the rail, was called upon a short distance from the quarter pole, angled three wide into the stretch, narrowed in on RACING RAVEN igniting a duel between them, fell short of snagging away the place. FREEZE THE ACCOUNT contended for commad for much of the opening half, went on to stalk the top one four wide once onto the turn, fanned out into path during the initial portion of the stretch, had no response. REIGN CHARGER cut over to the rail by the top of the turn, was hand urged cutting the corner into the stretch, failed to fire. OPERATOR took up the chase two wide on turn and gave way.

SIR BALLANTINE six paths off the inside down the backstretch patiently handled at the rear of the field, chased five wide through the turn advancing well coming under coaxing nearing the quarter pole, went eight wide into upper stretch rallying to take command with three-sixteenths to go, then drew clear under a drive to the finish. MISSLE BOMB six paths off the inside down the backstretch just off the pace dispute up front, advanced five wide through the turn coming under coaxing when taking command at the five-sixteenths, swung six wide into upper stretch, came under challenge straightened away and capitulated at the three-sixteenths, proved no match for the winner through the final eighth while well clear of the rest and second best. SPECIAL STORY chased just off the inside down the backstretch and then two to three wide through the turn coming under a ride with five-sixteenths to go, went nine to ten paths into upper stretch and improved by tired rivals in the drive. MR. DOUGIE FRESH vied from the five path down the backstretch with a pair to his inside, then four wide through the turn coming between foes as MISSILE BOMB advanced midway on the turn, came under coaxing at that juncture, got displaced in concert with his main pace rivals by that outside foe five-sixteenths from home, swung five wide into upper stretch and tired. COMBAT CONTROLLER hustled from the gate, vied from the four path between foes down the backstretch and then three wide through the turn coming under coaxing at the five-sixteenths as the trio was displaced from the front, swung four wide at the quarter pole and tired. HOLDING ACES vied from the three path with a pair to his outside before tucking to the two path into the turn, came under coaxing three furlongs from home, got displaced five-sixteenths from home, cornered three wide at the head of the stretch and faltered.

DOOLEY away without apparent mishap, was unhurried while racing towards the back of the pack during the initial half, glided over to the inside at the top the turn, scurried into contention with a sustained rail run, mustering up good momentum by the five-sixteenths marker, was angled sharply three wide into the stretch, retained the previously-noted momentum and issued a challenge at the three-sixteenths pole, took charge in short order, drew off to a very healthy margin before getting wrapped up with slightly under a sixteenth to go. OUR AMERICAN STAR sat forwardly placed along the inside, grabbed away the advantage at the end of the backstretch, inched away from the competition during the run around the bend, felt the presence of the eventual winner though before arriving at the head of the stretch, proved no match when confronted by that foe soon afterwards, held on well enough thereafter to nail down the place. ARTHUR AVENUE off the inside throughout, departed the backstretch stationed out towards path three, saw the pilot resort to stronger handling by the three-eighths pole, spun slightly wider for the stretch run, got outfinished. MR. MASSENA took up the chase approximately three wide on the turn, failed to respond when asked midpoint, came into the stretch and made no impact. CATCH A CAB in the three path entering the turn, was through after going six furlongs. PIMM'S CUP disputed the pace from the path two for the initial half, pulling on the right, backed away steadily once past the half mile pole. TIME EXPIRED lunged with his first step, scraping the left side of the gate, went about the turn benign three wide while never making its presence felt. JOLLY vied for command to midway on the backstretch the outside of PIMM'S CUP, left the half mile pole from path two then began to retreat shortly later.

HAVE ANOTHER chased four then three wide coming under coaxing at the three-eighths, swung four wide into upper stretch, closed well to collar the top pair seventy yards from the finish rolling on by to inch away in the final strides to the wire. MAY BE A DIAMOND broke out at the start bumping TALE OF MIST lightly, chased three wide coming under coaxing at the five-sixteenths, continued three wide into upper stretch, took over command narrowly at the three-sixteenths, battled with TALE OF MIST through the stretch, got collared in tandem seventy yards from home while preserving the place honors in the late going. TALE OF MIST three to four wide down the backstretch, tucked to the two path half a mile from home, came under coaxing nearing the quarter pole before being roused cutting the corner into upper stretch, offered up a challenge straightened away, dug in battling with the aforementioned foe through the length of the stretch while well clear for the show honors. SHIPSANDGOODS five wide down the backstretch, tucked inside half a mile from home, came under coaxing at the seven-sixteenths, swung two to three wide at the quarter pole and passed tired foes in the drive. MUSICALITY hustled from the gate, showed the way in hand from the two path through solid splits, came under coaxing nearing the quarter pole before being set down spinning just off the inside for home under threat from flanking challengers, yielded the front straightened away and tired. ASPHALT PAVING four wide in pursuit, got coaxed along midway on the turn, swung three to four wide for home and tired.

BACKSTRETCH GEORGE away forwardly placed, contended for the early advantage to the outside of ALEX'S LEMON TWIST, the more confidently-ridden of this twosome, stepped off the backstretch in the three path and edged away from the competition during the run around the bend, felt a whipsper of pressure from a fully-revved up FREUDIAN ANALYST when asked for a response in the general area of the three-sixteenths pole, maintained a comfortable lead the rest of the way to the wire, geared down for the last four jumps. TRINNI JUICE got guided over to the rail shortly after the start, continued to take the inside route for the remainder of the opening half, and would as it turned out be the lone member to spend significant time towards the rail during this event, cut the corner into the lane, had a good finish to garner the place, although never posing a danger to the winner. FREUDIAN ANALYST took up the chase from the two path, under a full drive for most of the trip on the turn, issued an abbreviated challenge after spinning into the upper stretch, had it flicked it then got outfinished for the place. ALEX'S LEMON TWIST gunned from the gate, argued for the lead from the two path until late on the turn before giving way. LAST CHANT brushed at the break, travelled two wide on the turn, picked off some rivals down the stretch but without much impact. BUSS THE BELL lightly bumped at the break, raced four wide on the turn, got sent out into path six early during the stretch drive, didn't have enough of an offering to make headway. KELVIN made light contact with its neighbor to the right at the start, proceeded along the turn four to five wide, hitched up to BLESSED HONOUR, brushed while momentarily in the tight with that opponent at the five-sixteenths pole, was slightly wider heading down the stretch lacking the needed response. WICKED HUNTSMAN pursued the front runners three wide on the turn and gave way. BLESSED HONOUR stepped onto the turn, made light contact with KELVIN over the slick surface a short distance from the quarter pole, came into the stretch and backed away.

T R CREW four wide in pursuit patiently handled, advanced on the top pair through the turn under his own power, got set down spinning three to four wide into upper stretch, took over straightened away for home and edged clear under a drive to prevail. TUSK chased three to four wide from the tail of the compact field, came under coaxing nearing the quarter pole, swung five wide at that station, ran on to chase the winner home clear of the rest. DADDY D T inside early on, was under a hold and eased back to tip out to the three path five and a half furlongs from home to be outside of DOYOUKNOWSOMETHING, advanced quickly to knock heads with that rival from the five-eighths through the turn coming under coaxing at the five-sixteenths, took over narrow command nearing the quarter pole, swung three wide at that station, got displaced straightened away and tired. DOYOUKNOWSOMETHING coaxed from the gate, established the front three then two wide in hand early on, had the aforementioned foe advance five furlongs out to the outside and knocked heads with that foe from that point through the turn coming under coaxing with three furlongs to run, got headed for command at the five-sixteenths under a drive, spun just off the inside for home shaken off and folded in the stretch.

RIVER OF DREAMS remained along the inside after the break, responded to some hand urging and advanced towards the front runners proceeding along the backstretch, vied to the left of POLAR CITY, inched away from that rival on the turn, came within sight of the head of the stretch and was turned loose, responded with gusto and drew off. TEN TWENTY NINE off the inside throughout, was worked into path three wide from the top of the turn to its midway point, got angled seven wide coming into the stretch, settled into his best stride with under an eighth to go to get up for the place. BENNY BIG BOY got guided over to the rail after the start, was still along it making his way on the turn, hand urged by the pilot, cut the corner into the stretch and got asked for more, launched a rail rally that was good enough to nail down the show. GUN FOR HIRE attained a forward position after shaking off a few light bumps with POLAR CITY in the shadow of the starting gate, sat forwardly placed for six furlongs, having been calleed upon leaving the three-eighths pole, commenced the stretch slightly wider and gave way. POLAR CITY underwent several light bumps from both sides right after the start, went on to secure the top nonetheless, was forced to fend off pressure from both sides, travelling along in the path two, gave in after going a half, hung around as a prominent factor until upper stretch and faltered. MY PERFECT GEM took up the chase from the two path after maknig some contact with POLAR CITY in the very initial stages, came into the stretch and had no rally. LUCKY LOU PAL broke to the outside springing from the starting gate, went about the turn hung out four wide, completed three-quarters then backed away. SANDY STRIKES failed to muster up any speed when asked at the start, raced from well off the inside, departed the backstretch towards the four path never having been involved.
