HAIL off the inside throughout, sat perched in the three path travelling on the turn, picked up interest along with two others coming up to the five-sixteenths marker, struck the front narrowly, was put to a hard drive turning into the lane, got engaged in a tussle with the runner up beginning from the general area of the three-sixteenths marker, bested that opponent during the ensuing furlong and drew off. GO took the inside route until the five-sixteenths marker, got angled to the outside leaving that station, becoming the innermost of a threesome challenging SUPER DUPER GIRL for command, went by approaching the quarter pole, got hooked up a duel with the winner soon afterwards, fell back before safely through the furlong grounds, did battle for another sixteenth before getting shaken off. CADEAU DE PAIX pursued the front runners from the three path, swung one path farther off the rail into the stretch, lugged in midstretch after being fed some right side stick work, straightened away and finished a non-threatening third. MO WINE stalked the leader from the two path until midpoint on the turn before giving way. POSSESSIVE one-paced in the two path was always outrun. SUPER DUPER GIRL showed the way being rated along the inside, got plowed under as three-quarters was being completed and retreated.

FINNEGAN (IRE) heads apart with COMPETITIVENESS during the opening phases, got wrangled back by the pilot, fighting fiercely on the bit, tracked the front runners from the pocket, still offering some resistance on the bit for most of the initial half, got cued up coming up to the quarter pole, had ample room to scoot up the inside corridor but saw the rider choose to swing to the outside instead, wound up towards path four by the completion of the maneuver, took an erratic course for the next furlong, reacting in a negative way whenever stick work was applied, went on to vanquish the second place finisher with approximately a sixteenth remaining, then kicked away, under a light drive. COMPETITIVENESS moved quickly into the two path after the break, had CANIFORM replace the top one as the main contender nearing the end of the backstretch, successfully turned that foe back, got asked for more being pounced upon by the winner in upper stretch, relinquished in the vicinity of the sixteenth pole, had no difficulty securing second. KENYAN three wide stepping on the turn, fanned out six wide exiting it, was never involved. CANIFORM sparred for the advantage from the three path on the turn before giving way.

VULCAN'S FORGE made light contact with BODHISATTVA in the shadow of the starting gate, got guided over to the inside route and would be the sole member of this quintet to spend significant time along it, picked up interest as six furlongs was being reached, was put to a drive angling into path three at the head of the stretch, closed in, settled into his best with under a sixteenth to go, caught up to then passed CLASSY CLASS in the final seventy yards and edged away. CLASSY CLASS stalked the leader from the three path, with BACKSIDE OF THE MOON close enough to the outside to make its presence felt too, was still in reserve striking the top as the third fraction was being finalized, went onward for another sixteenth before called upon for more, offered resistance before reeled in well past the sixteenth pole. BACKSIDE OF THE MOON forwardly placed four wide, lacked the needed late response. ABIDING STAR vied for control from the two path, got overhauled late on the bend, then steadily weakened down the lane. BODHISATTVA brushed with the winner after losing its footing springing from the gate, loped along in the two path afterwards bringing up the back of the pack.

NUT NUT grabbed the advantage shortly after the start, got set up in the two path showing the way, saw SOURCE CONTROL range up along the rail to crank up the pressure after stepping onto the turn, got set down spinning into the lane, with the aforementioned foe still bearing down hard, repelled the stiff challenger then dug in with determination in the final stages to prevail. GUN FOR HIRE tracked the front runners spotted at a slight distance from off the rail for a good portion of the opening half, got cued up and sent out into path four during the initial portion of the stretch, straightened away at the eighth pole and took off in earnest after the winner, flashed good belated energy, but fell short. SOURCE CONTROL stumbled as the field was sent on its way, recovered in short order and dove over to the rail, moved up to take on the eventual winner approaching the conclusion of the backstretch, put in a strong bid from that juncture until the sixteenth pole before weakening late into the show slot. NOBLE AND TRUE cut over to the inside after the break, began to close the gap when set down to a hard drive midpoint on the turn, maintained the momentum angling three wide into the stretch and rallied for the last major check. SECRET SCHOLAR forced the issue from the three path as the widest of a trio for a half before giving way. SAMURAI WARRIOR got steady after stumbling to the outside at the start, went about the turn from the three path, moved out into path six after spinning into the stretch and tired. I MISS MY FATHER was taken hold after being carried out slightly at the start, became sluggish and drifted onto the overland route at the top of the turn, was never heard from again.
