SILVER MISSION got hooked in a protracted duel with the second place finisher nearly from the get-go, raced heads apart with that foe from the two path, with the nemesis wedged in tight against the rail, had the battle spill over into the stretch with both riders asking their respective mounts for much more, began to lug in shortly after settling into upper stretch and would continue to do so throughout the journey down the stretch, with the pilot attempting to counteract this action with a strong grip on the right side, exchanged bumps at several intervals with FUHRLONG, gamely refused to surrender the lead and edged away late. FUHRLONG got guided over to the rail after appearing to come away fine, raced as a team with the winner, positioned in a bit tight along the rail, got called upon heading into the stretch, traded bumps with the winner at several points during their stirring fight down the lane, had the rider try to inch away from the fence by applying some left handed stick work, but to no avail, vied with vigor to the end, but was ultimately denied. LETHAL SHOT was briskly urged to prominence after the start, sat perched in the three path within range of the ongoing pace dispute, put to stronger and stronger encouragement the closer it got to the end of the bend until under a drive a few jumps before the quarter pole, commenced the stretch four wide, proved no match. JEGOS FIRE unseated the rider and ran off behind the gate, made it to about halfway on the chute being apprehended by the outrider, proceeded to break inward, striking the left side of the starting gate, went on to save ground while never reaching a contending position. CORAL RIDGE took up the chase from the two path and tired. Following a Stewards' Inquiry focusing on the stretch drive in addition to a claim of foul lodged by the rider of FUHRLONG against the rider of SILVER MISSION alleging interference, the result was allowed to stand and the race was declared official.

DEBONAIRE DEREK pressed the issue from the inside during the initial stages, was forced to steady when cut off by CONGRATS KID nearing the end of backstretch, got going again when put to some hand urging and tipped into the two path, drew up to the aforementioned rival by the quarter pole, bid as they spun into the lane, grabbed away the lead, then shook free in the final sixteenth. WHERE'S WILLY kept watch on the front runners from the three path, was driven four wide into the stretch, lugged in and got steadied thrice while rallying for the place. CONGRATS KID broke alertly and remained forwardly placed, was primarily in the two path down the backstretch arguing for control, matched up with the winner to its left side, edged away and was guided over to the rail approaching the half mile pole, moving there in close enough proximity to DEBONAIRE DEREK to lead its pilot to steady his mount, had that opponent recover and range up to re-engage him during the final stages of the run around the bend, got called upon as their second of two pace skirmishes began, kept up the fight before weakening in the final sixteenth. TYRRHENIAN quickly put along the inside route, failed to menace off the subsequent ground-saving journey. WALLYDABALLY rode the pocket to the five-sixteenths pole, got angled outward leaving that station, completed the maneuver being five wide, lacked a response. RETRIBUTION brushed the right side of the starting gate, was well behind the others almost instantaneously, racing sluggishly down the backstretch, departed it from the two path, was just as wide entering the stretch, got eased getting allowed to reach the finish line under his own power, then made it off the track without need of outside assistance.

VALKIMQUA saved ground for nearly a half, was cued up angling out heading into the lane, wound up in the four path, charged down the center of the strip towards the one to catch, collared that foe in the vicinity of the sixteenth pole then kicked away. DON'T BLAME HER lightly hand urged to clear the field, got guided over to the rail, showed the way rated and unprompted, got asked after finishing the half, held out until the sixteenth marker before getting reeled in. WILD STREET GIRL stalked the pace two to three wide and was outfinished. LUCKY BOOTS took up the chase from the two path and failed to menace. SWEET PEACHES tracked the action from the inside route, remained firmly gripped by the pilot from the five-sixteenths pole to the head of the stretch awaiting usable options, failed to fire when finally clear enough to get called upon. REGIFTING saved ground to upper stretch while trailing throughout.

FEELING BOSSY off well, attained a forward position, moved up in unison with GINNED UP, to the left, after setting foot into the backstretch to increase the pressure on early leader, was rated in the three path while forcing the issue as the widest of a threesome beginning from a short distance from the half mile pole, remained confidently handled while at the chore throughout the run around the second bend, was asked for more and gave it for the stretch drive, emerged by the conclusion of the furlong grounds as the new leader but with the runner up fully revved-up and full of momentum bearing down hard to the outside, got engaged in a spirited head to head tussle with that foe with a sixteenth to go, appeared to fall behind by a sliver of so in the final seventy yards, but came back gamely to win the bob. VOTRE COEUR unhurried at or near the two path for three-quarters, quickened when asked to pick up interest heading for the five-sixteenths pole, was under a drive taking the five path for entrance into the stretch, drew directly alongside the winner at the sixteenth pole, inched her way to the slimmest of leads in the final stages, but as determined as she continued afterwards, wasn't able to hold it. TALKN TIL MIDNIGHT made light contact with the left side of the starting gate, raced three wide on both turns, commenced the stretch by swinging four wide into it, mustered up a response good enough to secure the show. GINNED UP in the two path, vied for command from between rivals from midway down the backstretch to midway down the lane before weakening. NOLO CONTENDERE established control soon after the start, was down along the rail fending off a pair of opponents parked out in paths two and three respectively beginning from the five and half pole, continued at the task until midstretch then gave way. PEGASUS STORM out with its initial step, was corrected, cut over to the inside, faltered after going six furlongs. DISTINCTIVE DYNA loped along from the two path, never reached a contending position, was eased then subsequently made it off the course without need of outside assistance.

Footnotes

NATALIE VICTORIA lightly bumped at the start, gained a narrow advantage, inched her way to the inside route, making it there by the conclusion of the backstretch, was in hand setting the third fraction feeling some pressure from a pair of opponents to the outside for the majority of the journey around the turn, edged away from them to enter the stretch with none latched on, was switched over to a drive in the vicinity of the three-sixteenths pole, extended the margin seemingly in a flash, kept all of it in the final furlong while kept to active handling to the end. JUST GOT OUT tracked the pace from the rail and proved no match. LITTLEMISSPERFECT departed the backstretch from the two path, felt the whip past the midway point on the turn, offered no discernable pick up in speed, was under solid urging swinging four wide into the lane, made no headway. DARNLEY BAY in the three path, pressed the issue as the widest of three from the top of the turn to around the five-sixteenths pole before giving way. GET GORGEOUS bumped lightly with GET GORGEOUS right after the break, settled into the two path, vied from between rivals from the half mile pole until a short distance from the quarter pole and tired. BONITA LUNA saved ground for three-quarters and failed to menace.

Footnotes

SPA TOWN PARADE shifted out into three path during the initial stages, was in the same path setting foot into the stretch, was kept on hold keeping watch on the fighting front runners, with the second place finisher to its inside, swung four wide into the stretch, still paired up with JUST CATTY, closed in tandem with that opponent on the duelers, beginning the final furlong having hitched up to them, continued onward, not only going past them by going past an all out foe, that is the runner up, in deep stretch, edged away under some but less than vigorous handling. JUST CATTY off the inside throughout, entered the turn from the two path, was put to brisk hand urging by the three-eighths pole, stayed within range of the front runners, got asked for more spinning three wide into the stretch, accompanied by the eventual winner, chiseled away at the deficit, couldn't keep pace with the top one late, even under a frantic drive by this stage and had to settle for the place. IS SHE HOT got engaged in a protracted duel with REIGN, was the inner member of that contest, had its pilot be the first to commit to a drive, doing so several jumps before the recording of the third fraction, got overhauled by the top twosome with approximately a sixteenth remaining but won the fight with REIGN show slot. REIGN sparred for control from the two path to the sixteenth pole before backing away. MY WILD GATA sent over to the inside midway down the backstrech, cut the corner into the stretch, tipped off the rail in deep stretch and flashed some good late foot after completing the maneuver.

MADDIZASKAR came away in good order, took up residence in the two path before arriving at the conclusion of the homestretch, sat reseeded for three-quarters, tipped into the three path coming to the five-sixteenths pole, narrowed in, was called upon spinning into the stretch, steadily chopped away at the deficit, continued onward and with continued success, wore down DICEY FLATS in the final forty yards to prove best, primarily hand urged crossing the finish line. DICEY FLATS grabbed command shortly after the start, cut over to the inside, was rated, attended by MADDIZASKAR parked out in path two, had that one crank up the pressure as six furlongs was being reached, finished the run around the second bend and got called upon, staved off a stiff challenge during the ensuing furlong, only to have top one loom a danger soon afterwards, dug in with good determination before getting reeled in with only a few jumps to spare before the wire. JADEMARIE saved ground early, got let out a notch accelerating towards the outside leaving the five-sixteenths pole, was three wide by the conclusion of the move, had only a mild late response en route for show honors. LIGHT YEARS AWAY assumed a forward spot after the start, prompted the pace from the two path, issued a bid from the five-sixteenths pole to midlane then weakened. WEEKEND SCORE tracked the front runners from the inside route and faltered. JAZZ BAND JOE got guided over to the inside early, arrived at the quarter pole with sufficient clearance along the rail corridor to launch a rally, failed to so after being given her cue. SPECTACULAR FLASH squeezed at the start, travelled in the two path to the quarter pole, commenced the stretch one path wider, had no offering.

LIGHTNING LILLY grabbed the advanrage shortly after the start and cut over to the inside, was taken in hand and allowed to ease back as QUIBBLER dashed to the front and over to the rail coming to the end of the backstretch, shifted into the two path almost immediately afterwards, gradually closed in on the leader, arrived at the head of the stretch and was given its cue, won the fight leading up and through the furlong grounds to emerge at the eighth pole in possession of a slim lead, extended it, kept to encouragement. QUIBBLER was steadied on the left sisde and corrected after breaking sharply to the outside springing from the gate, proceeded along in the initial stages, somewhat keen and pulling with much force on the bit, was let out a notch, in the term of some light hand urging and rushed up to the front and over to the rail approaching the half mile pole, departed it holding its biggest advantage, saw it steadily chopped away by the winner from the top; of the bend of the end, all the while gradually drifting into the two path, got set down after settling into upper stretch, was about a head shy of the top at the beginning of the final furlong, held on long enough in deep stretch to salvage second. TAKEN BY SURPRISE set foot into the turn from the two path, altered onto the inside route coming to the five-sixteenths pole, cut the corner into the lane, was maneuvered back into the two path for the final sixteenth, closed in belately, raced side by side with the runner up in the shadow of the wire, missed out on second. OVER MY HEAD along the inside for six furlongs, lacked the needed response after being angled off the rail coming into the stretch. RAZIA SULTANA pursued the pace three wide and gave way. LADY CHOCOLOTOTA took up the chase from the two path and was no factor. ALWAYS SARAH three wide at the half mile pole, trailed throughout.

Footnotes

GROUND CONTROL broke on top and maintained the advantage, cut the pace from the inside, was switched over to a drive coming to the three-sixteenths pole and drew off. CASTAWAY near the inside and urged on the turn, angled out into the two path heading into the stretch, was put to a hard drive, failed to dent into the margin, drifted out a bit in the last eighth while securing the place. STAY TUNED settled into the two path after the start, was put to a drive approaching the five-sixteenths marker after having fallen back from the front runners, set foot into the stretch, split rivals in midlane launching a mild rally good enough to grab the show award. MARCH TOO underwent a three wide pursuit on the turn, got set down for the drive, shied out slightly in deep stretch and away from an errant CASTAWAY while lacking a winning response. DIGHTON bobbled at the start, raced three to four wide on the turn and failed to menace. MACK MILLER cut the corner to no avail. SAY MR. SANDMAN patiently prompted the winner from the two path for a half before giving way.
