REIGN settled into the two path after the start, started to get heavily roused midpoint on the turn, made up only a minimal amount of real estate, swung three to four wide into the stretch and closed in with much more success afterwards, so much so as to arrive as the new leader by the conclusion of the furlong grounds, edged away under a drive. BARRIER TO ENTRY took up the chase towards the two path on the turn, was already being called upon prior to the quarter pole, came four to five wide, the widest of all into the stretch, got straightened away and rallied well enough to procure the place. FRONT COVER DREAM got guided onto the inside route approaching the half mile pole, got put three wide at the head of the stretch, came up with a mild response to take the show award. PROVE IT ALL NIGHT broke to the outside, but was quickly corrected by the pilot, sparred on even terms with GABBY'S BROWN, doing battle with that opponent from the two path, was pulling on the bit for much of the way along the backstretch, headed the nemesis as the half was being reached, got pounced upon by top one soon afterwards and succumbed. GABBY'S BROWN got engaged in a duel with PROVE IT ALL NIGHT several strides into the contest, was coaxed along from the inside while racing as a team with that foe, yielded at the quarter pole, remained prominently placed a little while longer then retreated.

Footnotes

THE GREAT WHITEWAY cut over to the inside after the break, sparred with BERB'S MONARCHY positioned out in path two, had the tussle pick up a couple of ticks with regards to tempo during the run around the bend, arrived at the quarter pole with the nemesis no longer attached, got called upon after settling into upper stretch more in the two path than before, emerged at the end of the furlong grounds holding its biggest advantage, remained comfortably in the clear the rest of the way to the wire. NO ENTIENDO perched three wide behind the contested pace, commenced the stretch one path farther off the rail, outfinished a plethora of rivals to get up for the place. GUYANA CAT had the pilot correct course after ducking inward as the field was sent off and running, shifted off the inside midway down the backstretch after UNO EMAYO got sent there, continued to be trailer while racing two wide on the turn, fanned out into the five path during the initial portion of the stretch to attain optimal clearance, was moving well belatedly en route to winning the show photo. TREE SHAKER chased the front runners from the two path, was put to some hand encouragement nearly from the get-go, fell back as the pace picked up during the setting of the second fraction, angled three wide into the stretch, split rivals late, but fell short of snagging an in-the-money check. UNO EMAYO made it over to the rail well before reaching the end of the backstretch, rode the rail on the turn, cut the corner with enough room to launch a rally, got outfinished. BERB'S MONARCHY disputed the pace from the two path and gave way.

RACHEL'S TEMPER took up the chase from the two path on the turn, sprung five wide into the stretch, kicked into its best stride to arrive as a bold threat at the eighth pole, gained command in short order and drew clear. ROWD E ALLIE set the pace from the inside, proved no match when confronted by the winner, held on well enough though to secure second. SHOTGUN LOVE stalked the leader from the two path for the opening half before tiring. FLARING rode the rail for a half, was maneunvered out towards the six path in two stages from upper to midstretch, lacked the needed closing punch. AWESOME NEWS tracked the pace from the pocket on the turn and faltered. NORTHERN SCREAMER underwent a three wide pursuit on the turn and gave way.

FASHION STREET made slight contact with GOOD LAUCH at the break, responded to some light hand urging right afterwards splitting rivals and taking up position in midpack, departed the backstretch from the two path and remained in it chasing the pace, picked up interest and swung four wide into the stretch, kept its momentum and began the final furlong as the primary threat to the leader, drew even a sixteenth down the road, cemented herself to the front with a few more jumps and shook free. HEYGIRLLETURSELFGO showed the way from the two path, initially well rated, got collared in the vicinity of the sixteenth marker, continued onward in a willing manner to garner the place. GOOD LAUGH brushed with the winner at the break, seeming to get a little bit of the worse of it from that encounter, drafted in the two path behind the pacesetter, entered the stretch and got set down, failed to fire appreciably and had to settle for the show. TRUE CHARM unhurried in the two path for almost a half, spun three wide into the stretch, lacked the needed late response. NAKED EMPRESS tracked the front runners from the inside, launched an abbreviated bid coming to the quarter pole, appearing to have headed a few others that had chosen a much wider route for entrance into the lane, flattened out. FIRESTAR underwent a three wide pursuit on the bend, commenced the stretch one path wider than before, weakened. SHOT TWICE saved ground early, got sent five wide towards midstretch, failed to muster up a response then was reported after the race to have bled. WOODFORD TEA was steered away from a minor incident after being released from the starting gate, sat reserved at or near the the two path while nearly trailing throughout.

COURT DANCER broke on top and remained in control, was placed at a slight distance from off the rail, got rated while feeling pressure from a pair of opponents to her outside the entire run around the bend, was called upon for more than before in the general area of the threee-sixteenths marker, offered up good determination in the final stages defending an ever-dwindling lead. WILLET came away in good order, took up residence in the two path, kept watch within striking distance of a group comprised of three, spread outward beginning from the right border of the inside route, got cued up angling four wide into the stretch, took off in earnest after the winner, steadily chopped away at the deficit in the final furlong but fell short of reeling in the top one. BLITHELY underwent several brushes in rapid succession in the shadow of the starting gate, prompted the winner two to three wide and from between opponent from the top of the bend to its end, remained a prominent factor to midlane before weakening. MYFOURCHIX got brushed a few times shortly after the start, vied for command as the widest of a threesome being three to four wide on the turn, backed away after reaching deep into the furlong grounds. MAKE THE MOMENT guided over to the rail coming to the end of the backstretch, had no rally off the ground-saving journey that followed. TRICKY ZIPPY had the rider take hold after being lightly bounced between rivals soon after the start, reached out in awkward manner before resuming a more professional way of going, travelled three wide on the turn, commenced the stretch one path farther off the rail, came up empty.

BASS RIVER ROAD moved out slightly after losing its footing springing from the starting gate, tracked the second place finisher while taking the inside route, same as that rival, was put to strong encouragement angling to the outside heading to the top of the lane, closed in, took charge in the final forty yards to prove best. THE BIG DELUXE quickly established control and cut over to the rail, carved out the pace, rider keeping something in reserve for the initial half, was called upon for more just as the top one was herself launching what proved to be a decisive move, had the pilot lose the whip right around the three-sixteenths pole, was determined to the end but had to settle for being second best. AMERICAN CREED took up the chase from the two path and proved no match. STAR OF NEW YORK got away a length slower than any other, after momentarily shying away from the winner at the start, rapidly tucked along on the turn, got sent into five path heading for three-sixteenths pole, made no headway. SATURDAY APPEAL two to three wide on the turn, was two paths wider at the top of the lane, failed to menace. CHAPMAN two wide departing the backstretch, gave way.

Footnotes

MADAM AAMOURA contended for the lead outside KIBBLE on the clubhouse turn, shook free and tucked along the rail shortly after stepping onto the backstretch, gained no respite what with the previously-mentioned foe applying some pressure after having shifted into the two path herself, began to shake free a second time from that opponent as three-quarters was being completed, got let out in upper, scampered away to her biggest lead during the run through the furlong grounds, had the runner up close in boldly but had enough of headstart on that foe to preserve the decision. JADEMARIE lightly bumped from both sides at the break, made it over to the rail well before reaching the end of the homestretch, was outrun for the opening half, picked up the pace when put to some hand urging departing the backstretch, slipped into the two path as six furlongs was being reached, appeared full of run while strongly encouraged swinging outward entering the lane, finished the maneuver in the path six by midstretch, charged down the center of the strip with belatedly energy en route to place honors. MILAYA made some contact with the second place finisher at the start, took up position in the pocket, patiently kept an eye on the leader, was cued up angling off the inside route heading home, got outfinished. LASSOTHEMOHICANS lightly bumped at the start, saved ground, bided time starting from the five-sixteenths pole, hand coaxed to maintain interest, had enough of a seam down along the rail corridor to launch a rally and did so at the three-sixteenths pole, quickened for the next sixteenth or so then flattened out. ENDLESS CHAT three wide early, lacked the needed response. REGIA MARINA took up the chase towards the two path for the initial stages, shot to the five path from upper to midlane, made no impact. JCS AMERICAN DREAM in the two path and between foes for the first half, tipped into the three path at the top of the far turn, gave way. THERASAS CANDYROSE three wide on both turns, gave way. KIBBLE forwardly placed along the rail early, tipped into the two path after MADAM AAMOURA was sent onto the inside route leaving the opening bend, vied for the lead for three-quarters before beginning to back away, took some sudden bad steps at the three-sixteenths pole, was quickly pulled up and subsequently vanned off.

Footnotes

GOOD LUCK GUS darted over to the two path after a clean getaway, continued from off the inside throughout, tipped out into the three path and stayed in it making journey around the far turn, responded when given its cue after three-quarters was being completed, fanned four to five wide into the stretch, closed in readily on his uncoupled stablemate, continued onward with good courage and with good success, shied out momentarily with approximately a sixteenth remaining, by now securely hitched up to its uncoupled stablemate, whittled away at the deficit without having missed a beat, took over in the shadow of the wire, crossing it under a hand drive. ROYAL POSSE travelled three wide on both turns, pressed the issue as the widest of a trio on the far turn, moved up after the middle member, that being EYE LUV LULYU was beginning to call it a day after three-quarters was run, was set down challenging in earnest spinning into the lane, wrested away the lead during the ensuing furlong, left the eighth pole, facing challengers down along the rail, in the form of OSTROLENKA, and to its outside, that is the eventual winner, came out several paths after some strong left handed stick work in the vicinity of the sixteenth pole, didn't make any contact with the top one but did induce it to shift wider himself, got reeled in during the last few jumps. OSTROLENKA saved ground, was under a drive cutting the corner into the stretch, loomed boldly by the end of the furlong grounds, finished willingly while settling for the show award. FULL OF MINE well rated early in the two path, got guided into the fourth one during the initial portion of the stretch, came up empty. FOX RULES broke on top and kept the advantage, was rated from the inside setting the splits, came under the direct attention of two others, parked out in paths two and three respectively on the far turn, gave in to that pressure right after stepping into the lane. EYE LUV LULU strung out three wide on the first turn, worked out a spot closer to the rail down the backstretch, vied for the lead from between rivals on the second bend, appeared done by the quarter pole and retreated.

ROMAN CERES shied out a bit and away from an errant NICK'S FUNNYBONE a few strides after the break, assumed a prominent position, stalked the pace from the two path, issued a challenge coming to the quarter pole, won the fight from upper to midlane to emerge as the new leader, kicked away. RIOT WORTHY had an inside trip, was asked for run prior to the quarter pole en route to rallying for place honors. NICK'S FUNNYBONE veered out a couple of paths once the gate had been sprung open, gained the advantage in short order nonetheless and cut over to the rail, showed the way being shadowed by the top one, came under attack from that foe nearing the quarter pole, yielded and weakened into the show slot. J K'S GIRL chased while being two wide and went on to best the rest. GONNA FIND HER hung out three wiide on the turn, failed to menace. SHIMMERING MOON underwent a three wide pursuit on the turn and gave way. SLIP AND SLIDE rode the rail, was used early to no avail. TUESDAY GAL off slowly, raced from off the inside and was always outrun.
