MONTELEONE away without apparent mishap, secured a prominent position in short order, vied from path four as the widest of a threesome for the top, was noticeably the most confidently-handled of that group as they drew on near even terms with each other as the half was being completed, was on the verge on taking charge when asked for more in the vicinity of the three-sixteenths marker, emerged a sixteenth down the road indeed in control, got steadied after coming out a few paths at the sixteenth pole, remained well in the clear though, geared down for the last few jumps. TAKE YOUR PLACE bobbled slightly after making contact with FOX RED in the shadow of the starting gate, sat parked out in path five keeping an eye on the fighting front runners during the journey around the bend, shifted a bit wider early during the stretch run, displayed some energy down the middle of the strip garnering the place, although no match for the winner. MAD MUNNYS hustled from the gate, could only prompt the leader at best during the initial stages, went about the task, three wide and from between rivals until the head of the stretch, was in the process of backing away from the pace dispute when taken hold of getting gently pinched right around the three-sixteenths marker, ventured onward to secure the show. CALIFORNIA NIGHT urged along by the pilot right after springing from the gate to get going, travelled on the overland route to no avail. FOX RED grabbed the advantage shortly after the start, took up residence in the two path fending off a pair of opponents to his outside, set down to a brisk hand ride by the half mile pole, gave in near the top of the start and tired. None in this quintet spent any significant time along the inside route.

HERO'S WELCOME patiently ridden tracking the front runners from along the inside route, abandoned it after the half had been reeled off, was well held gradually shifting into path five during the run around the bend, tipped one path farther off the rail once into the stretch and was given his cue, responded, beginning the final furlong clearly as the new leader, ventured onward, all the while adding to the winning margin. ZEALOUS appeared to make light contact with left side of the starting gate after lunging at the break, went on to attain a forward position, was in path four closing the gap from the top of the bend to its end, got put a ride spinning into the lane, was outfinished and had to settle for second. DANCE FOR ORO three wide onto and off of the turn, had no response. REPLICATOR dove onto the inside route as the half was being completed, got roused a furlong later, narrowed in, enough so as to loom boldly by the quarter pole, kept up its bid for nearly another eighth before flattening out. SCRUTINIZE unhurried taking path two along the backstretch, failed to pick it up when asked leaving the half mile pole. RUCKSACK broke on top and retained the advantage, showed the way, rating kindly in the two path, came under intensified pressure from both sides as the third fraction was being finalized and saw the rider go to work, got overhauled soon afterwards, readily backed away once beyond the furlong marker.

CAOIMHE prompted the pace six paths off the inside down the backstretch, tucked three wide into the turn coming under a ride three furlongs from home, swung four wide into upper stretch, weakened. SHE'S A LUMBERJANE established control in short order, was allowed to drift into path three showing the way on the turn, came up to the three-sixteenths marker and got set down, responded with gusto and scampered away. SANDER'S EMPIRE pressed the winner three to four wide on the turn, under encouragement for most of the trip around it, lost contact down the lane, stayed on for the place. ANALYZE WITH HONOR hustled early on the backstretch after making solid contact with MATS CHECKRIDE at the start, was three wide and set down to an all out drive on the turn, failed to make her presence felt. DEVIL'S FLAIR strung out four wide, the widest of all on the turn, moved into path six during the initial portion of the stretch, remaining the widest, lacked a response. SEMAYA bumped right after the start, was along the inside route well before reaching the conclusion of the backstretch, was in hand coming three wide into the lane and allowed to back away. MATS CHECKRIDE bumped hard from between rivals springing from the gate, was on hold approximately three wide entering and then exiting the turn.

Footnotes

WE SHOULD TALK seven paths off the inside down the backstretch, chased five to six wide through the turn under coaxing from the seven-sixteenths, swung six to seven wide for home, dug in under a drive steadily gaining on the outside to get up in the final jumps and prevail on the wire. SUMMER BOURBON hustled from the gate, prompted the pace of BLUE BELT from the outside six wide down the backstretch, got bumped by that rival at the five-eighths, tucked five wide through the turn coming under coaxing half a mile out, swung five wide into upper stretch, took over command with three-sixteenths to go, dug in under a drive and was nailed in the last jumps to the wire. BLUE BELT showed the way in hand five then four wide under pressure from the aforementioned foe to the outside, got set down cornering four wide for home, yielded command at the three-sixteenths, weakened in the late stages. T LOVES A FIGHT eight paths off the inside down the backstretch, tucked three to four wide into the turn coming under coaxing at the seven-sixteenths, went eight wide into upper stretch, made no headway through to the finish. FLEET IRISH chased six then five wide under a ride from the seven-sixteenths, swung seven wide for home, passed tired foes. READYHEARTANDSOUL six paths off the inside down the backstretch, tucked to the two path half a mile from home, came under urging midway on the turn, angled four wide into upper stretch and made no impact. MIGHTY ZEALOUS seven paths off the inside down the backstretch, chased four to five wide through the turn under coaxing from the three-eighths, went six wide into upper stretch and tired.

NAPLES PRINCESS coaxed along tracking the front runners towards the inside route, got cued up angling to the outside from the five-sixteenths marker, fanned wider and wider until about six wide by midstretch, arrived at the eighth pole full of momentum, cleared to the front soon afterwards and edged away. SHIMMERING MOON was in path three, seemingly sparring with NOBLE FREUD from the get-go, followed the lead of the nemesis by swinging a couple of paths wider into the stretch, shied out a bit more afterwards, out-dued the previously-mentioned opponent for place honors. NOBLE FREUD away a length the quickest, settled into path two, got engaged in a protracted tussle with the second place finisher, was ridden four wide into the lane, fought onward willingly after losing the lead inside the eighth pole but fell short of securing second. NORMA'S CHARM took up the chase at or near the two path, got sent out into the direction of path seven after spinning into the stretch, made no impact. HOPONTHEBUSGUS two wide in pursuit of the front runners, came under a drive soon after departing the backstretch, lacked the desired response.
