SILVER SILENCE was bumped at the start, yet still managed to break on the lead, proved rateable cutting the pace at or near the inside for six furlongs, shook off an abbreviated challenge from the runner up after departing the backstretch, drifted in the direction of the three path heading home, remained comfortably in the clear. APPEARANCE pinched at the start, raced three to two wide for the opening three-quarters, mustered up a brief bid for the lead after going a half, proved no match, had no trouble securing second. MISS MOTIVATION bobbed at the start, raced along the outside and failed to make its presence felt. MY GOLDEN GIRL bumped at the break, accompanied the winner from the two path for a half, was guided over to the inside route afterwards, faltered.

VISION OF MINE away well, got coaxed along prompting the aforementioned foe while three to four wide, came under a drive with five-sixteenths to go, spun three wide for home, weakened in the stretch while well clear for the place honors. BARRIER TO ENTRY broke out at the start under hustling, chased four to five wide, trailed.

Footnotes

CEMENT JOB required several attempts by the gate crew before being successfully loaded , proceeded to come in slightly but enough to make contact with its next door neighbor, had the rider take hold, sat reserved no further off the rail than the two path, was tipped into the three path nearing the end of the backstretch, steadily advanced towards the front runners, challenged them in earnest heading into the lane, began to drift out, periodically fed some left hand stick work, as did the rival to catch, went by the errant second place finisher in the last seventy yards to prove best. IGOTTHEDISCOINME broke alertly, maintained the advantage and was guided over to the rail approaching the end of the homestretch, momentarily leading the rider of X MAX to steady, vied for the lead from the inside, had the winner join the fracas as six furlongs was being completed and got set down, began to drift out noticeably by midstretch, pilot at times applying some left handed pressure, got reeled in past the sixteenth pole by another that failed to keep a straight course. WILD HAM took an awkward initial step, contended for command from the two path for three-quarters before giving way. CRIMSON LAD bumped from both sides after being sprung from the gate, saved ground while never getting involved. NORM THE GIANT four wide on both turns, was rank during the initial stages, rushed up to confront the front runners entering the backstretch, kept pace with them for a little while, fell back despite asked for run after going a half. MEETINGHOUSE ROAD lightly bumped at the start, raced from off the inside, drifted six wide into the lane, had no offering. X MAX steadied while IGOTTHEDISCOINME was tucking along the rail, swung into the three path afterwards, stayed forwardly placed for a bit more than a half and tired.

In a one on one match not seen at a New York race course in just over a quarter of a century PAINTED PONEY was away well leading briefly early on while going head to head from the inside, got shaken off a bit getting a sole tap to stay to the inside three furlongs from home, cut the corner into upper stretch, continued the fracas along the inside to come again and take back over a furlong out with good courage, edged away in the late stages geared down in the final strides to the wire. EPIPHANY broke cleanly, dueled from the three path early taking command nearing the half mile pole then just off the inside through the turn, shook away briefly nearing the quarter pole, spun just off the inside for home, dug in and was headed near the eighth pole, offered no extra as her rival opened up inside the final sixteenth.

Footnotes

SECOND CITY brushed with the runner up at the start, was placed along the rail, kept watch on the front runners rider applying a solid grip on the reins for much of the initial half, was given its cue and responded eagerly angling into the three path from the five-sixteenths marker to the head of the stretch, quickly hitched up to the pair to catch and just about quickly surged past them, drew off. SPRINGCOURT made some contact with the winner at the start, was three wide midpoint on the far turn, fanned into seventh path during the opening phases of the stretch drive, rallied well enough to get up for the place. REAL ESTATE RICH devoid off early speed, vacated the inside route in upper stretch and went on to take the show award. CHAIRMAN NOW launched a three to two wide run to grab the advantage on the first turn, was sent over to the rail afterwards, got engaged in a tussle with MOONLUCK on the far turn, proved no match when pounced upon by the eventual winner, got outfinished late and had to settle for the final major slice of the pot. MOONLUCK brushed at the start, was placed into the two path once CHAIRMAN NOW took over, sparred on even terms with that opponent from the half mile pole to upper stretch, backed away late. DAYS RIDE took up the chase from off the inside, swung six wide towards the three-sixteenths pole, had no rally. BIG TOWN strung out in the three path on both turns, folded.

ISABELLE moved up to increase her presence while two wide after the initial fraction had been recorded, spun three wide into the lane having been asked for run, readily chopped away at the deficit, came inward past the eighth pole, after some right handed stick work, as the runner up was moving to the outside, its pilot sporting the whip from the left side, with all this resulting in the rider of BLITHELY steadying while caught momentarily in the ensuing traffic situation, got engaged in a vigorous fight with ATLANTIC'S SMILE and gamely got to the wire first. ATLANTIC'S SMILE established control in short order, cut the pace with the pilot initially using a snug hold on the reins, felt an uptick in pressure heading for the quarter pole and was soon let out, drifted into the two path at the head of the stretch, creating a usable rail corridor for BLITHELY, wandered in a bit shortly afterwards, had the rider correct course immediately afterwards, with the last-named opponent likewise altering course towards the outside, arrived at the eighth pole with the winner bearing down hard, drifted out a couple of paths to meet the challenger, once again after a few shot, but this left handed, battled hard but fell short. BLITHELY worked her way into the pocket, closed the gap, was kept on hold bidding time during the final legs of the run around the bend, cut the corner with an available seam along the inside route and was switched over to brisk encouragement, chose to alter course to the outside after the second place finisher drifted in slightly from some right handed pressure, wound up placed in traffic and got steadied, got steadied a second time with less than a furlong remaining when her lane got shut down for a period by the top twosome, continued onward with good courage for the show. MISSIPPITYSLEWDA rode the rail down the backstretch, coaxed along by the rider, angled into the two path and took it for most of the way around the bend, commenced the stretch from the four path, lacked a winning response. MAKE THE MOMENT saved ground for nearly a half, fanned six to seven wide into upper stretch, had no rally. MY TEE TIME raced along the outside, was three wide midpoint on the turn and towards the five path by the three-sixteenths pole, lacked a response. Following a Stewards' Inquiry focusing on both the first two finishers, in addition to a claim of foul lodged by the rider of BLITHELY against the rider of ATLANTIC'S SMILE alleging interference, the result was allowed to stand and the race was declared official.

HUMBOLT STREET bumped at the start by RAMBAM who was bumped himself by ESSENCE AT NOON, saved ground in mid pack, came under urging three furlongs out, cut the corner into upper stretch, rallied along the rail in a bit tight near the eighth pole, bounced off the fence when seizing command inside that station, dug in under challenge through to the wire and ran on gamely to prevail. THOMAS KNIGHT in range of the front four wide, came under urging three furlongs from home, spun four to five wide into upper stretch, shied in under an off sided stick to the three path straightened away issuing a challenge, arrived at the eighth pole latched on to a pair, fought on well with HUMBOLDT STREET down to the wire but was ultimately rebuffed in a nice debut. ESSENCE AT NOON broke out at the start bumping and squeezing back RAMBAM against HUMBOLDT STREET, showed the way just off the inside under light coaxing, came under a drive past the five-sixteenths, spun just off the inside for home coming under challenge flanked by a pair straightened away, dug in between foes holding command to the eighth pole, got headed inside that station and was outfinished thereafter. CASH BUYER brushed the near side stall at the start while breaking inwards, chased just off the pace just off the inside coming under encouragement past the three-eighths, swung three wide for home, opted to shift in looking for a seam between ESSENCE OF NOON and HUMBOLDT STREET as THOMAS KNIGHT shied into the three path from the outside, had none and was forced to steady off the heels of ESSENCE OF NOON a furlong out, angled to the four path once THOMAS KNIGHT cleared outside and weakened to the wire. RAMBAM bumped by ESSENCE OF NOON and pinched back at the start against HUMBOLDT STREET, chased inside from towards the rear, came under urging with five-sixteenths remaining, cut the corner into upper stretch and offered no response. IT'S PERFECT TOO bobbled slightly at the start, prompted the pace two to three wide under urging from midway on the turn, angled five wide in retreat into upper stretch and faltered. HEAVEN'S BEST chased the pace three to four wide from towards the rear ridden along from midway on the turn and made no impact. LINE MOVE hit the off side stall at the start when breaking outwards, prompted the pace three wide under urging from three furlongs out, faded through the latter portion of the turn, swung four wide for home and gave way. There was a Stewards' Inquiry into the stretch run focusing on ESSENCE OF NOON before the result was declared official.
